Cultivating Herbal Wonder

Saturday, November 2, 2024 • 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Join us for our 42nd annual Herb Fair at Olbrich Botanical Gardens

10:30 a.m. A Progressive View of Traditional Gardening by the Moon – Jane Hawley Stevens

Timing for agriculture is written in the sky with planetary movements, the original calendar, as plants are the original medicine. I have incorporated Moon phases with a focus on the elemental influences for over 30 years.

12:30 p.m. Medicine of the World Tree – Kyle Denton

A cosmological journey of medicine and myth, from the forest floor to the canopy of various cultural central trees.

2:30 p.m. Culinary Uses of Herbs: Practical Tips and Creative Ideas – Chef Kevin Appleton

Perceptions of herbs/flavor vary and evolve individually and evolve across cultures. We will discuss how to use herbs harmoniously within a dish and when to add during cooking process.
