

YMBA CODE OF CONDUCT

POLICY STATEMENT

The goal of the YMBA (Young Men's Baseball Association) is to provide a fun, rewarding, and quality young men's baseball program. Our core values are fairness, respect, responsibility, trustworthiness and good citizenship. We strive for the highest standards of sportsmanship as detailed in the following Code of Conduct. Every participant has a responsibility to comply with and enforce the provisions of the Code. To accomplish these goals, each player and coach must sign the Code of Conduct before any player can participate in the program. By signing the Code of Conduct, each participant agrees to comply with the Code and acknowledges that any failure to comply with any provision of the Code could lead to disciplinary action.

YMBA PLAYER'S CODE OF CONDUCT

The Young Men's Baseball Association (YMBA) expects players to behave in a sportsmanlike manner. The following list represents a limited set of guidelines for conduct.

- I will be respectful and courteous to umpires, coaches, players, and fans;
- I will not taunt, ridicule or argue with any umpire, coach, player, or fan;
- I will not use abusive or vulgar language;
- I will not engage in disruptive or inappropriate behavior;
- I will not hurt or attempt to hurt any other person;
- I will not throw my bat, batting helmet or any other piece of equipment
- I will not use alcohol, tobacco or any other drug anywhere in the baseball complex where I am participating as a player or spectator in a YMBA game.

As a YMBA Player, I affirm that I have read, understand and agree to comply with the YMBA Code of Conduct, including the guidelines summarized above. I understand my responsibilities and the consequences if I do not comply with the Code of Conduct.
