Happy Holidays

Dear Neighbors,

Wishing you all the joy, warmth and sparkle this season brings! As we wrap up the year, I am grateful for the kindness, cooperation and community spirit that makes our neighborhood so special.

May your holidays be filled with laughter, love and peaceful moments. Here is to a bright and beautiful New Year ahead.

With cheer,
Debrah, Andrews
President, SSOA

As we wrap up this year and look ahead to a fresh new one, we want to take a moment to celebrate the heart of our community. This past year we supported one another, shared ideas and worked together, and it has shown just how strong Steamboat Shores truly is.

The New Year gives us a wonderful chance to start fresh, lift each other up, and continue building a place we are all proud to call home. Whether you lend a helping hand, join an event, share a suggestion, or simply smile at a neighbor, every small act helps create the community spirit that makes Steamboat Shores special.

In the months ahead, we hope to stay connected, communicate more openly, and welcome everyone's voice. Your involvement, no matter the size, makes a real difference. Together, we can make 2026 a year filled with growth, kindness and great memories.

Let's step into the New Year with excitement, hope and a shared commitment of looking out for one another. Thank you for being such an important part of our neighborhood. Here's to new beginnings, stronger bonds, and a bright and inspiring year ahead.

Wishing every one of you happiness, good health and success in the New Year.

Sincerely,

Cori Vest

Funny Christmas Poem to Share

Twas the Night before Christmas When all through the house
Not a calorie was spared. It all went in my mouth.
My stockings were hung by my ankles, legs bare
They no longer fit, And I didn't care.
The chocolates were eaten, the damage was done.
The hell with my diet And boy it was fun.
Now Brownies! Now Brittle! Now Egg Nog and Fudge Tin!
On Cookies! On Cupcakes! On Fruitcake and Blintzes!
To the girth of my hips! To my intestinal walls!
Now eat away! Eat away! Eat away all!
Happy Christmas to All and to All a Good Bite!!!
