

Srishti
For Resilience

2024

Programme Update

Our Programmes and Thematic Imprints

01

Grassroots Mentoring

Collaborate closely with Grassroot NGOs and facilitate localised programme & projects development along with implementation support

02

Capacity Building

Design & facilitate training courses for NGOs and Government on the themes of sustainable development & Disaster Management

03

Technical Support

Provide technical support services for assessments, planning, mid-term reviews, participatory appraisals & knowledge management

04

Networking & Coordination

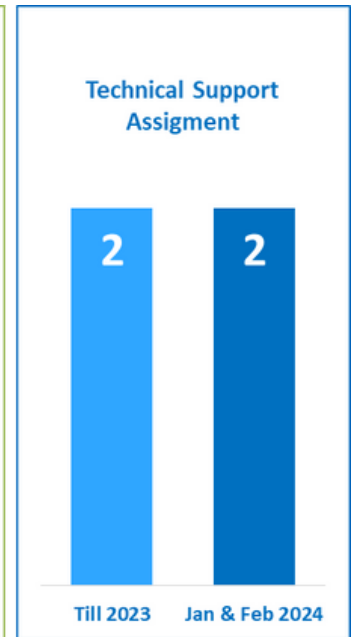

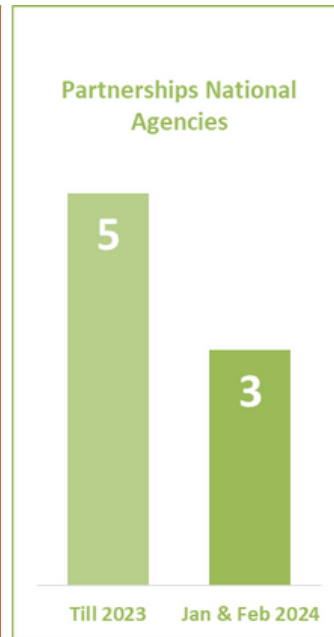

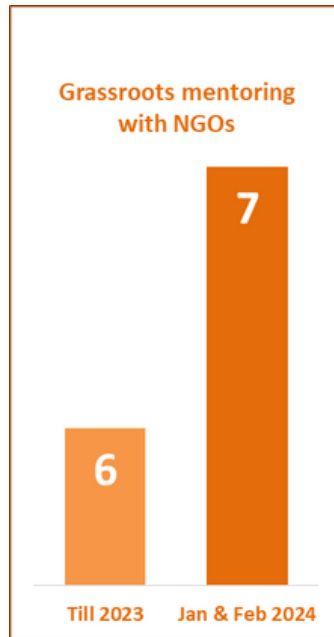

Proactive engagement with networks and coordination with Government and NGO stakeholders for fostering collective actions & advocacy

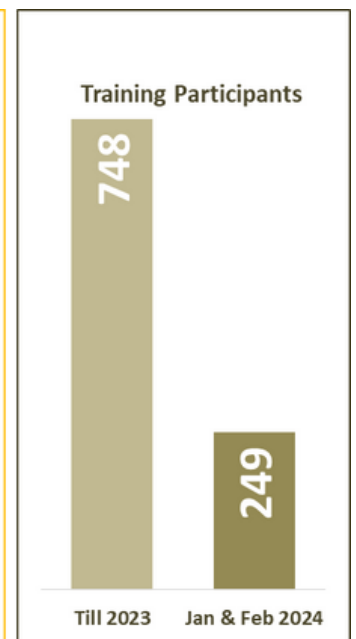

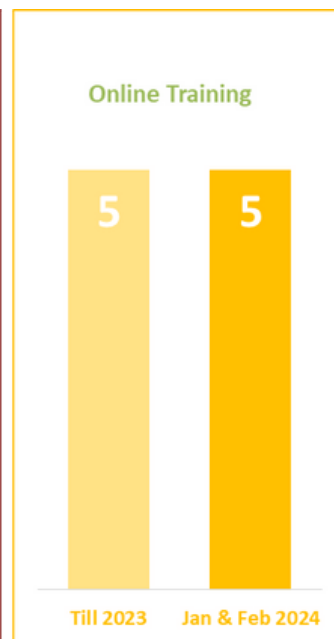

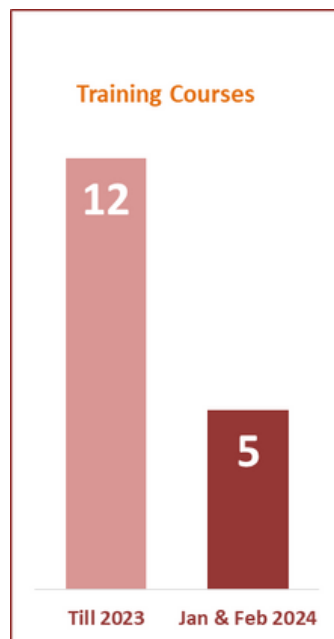

Achievements January - February 2024

Partnerships

Capacity Building

Organisation Mentoring

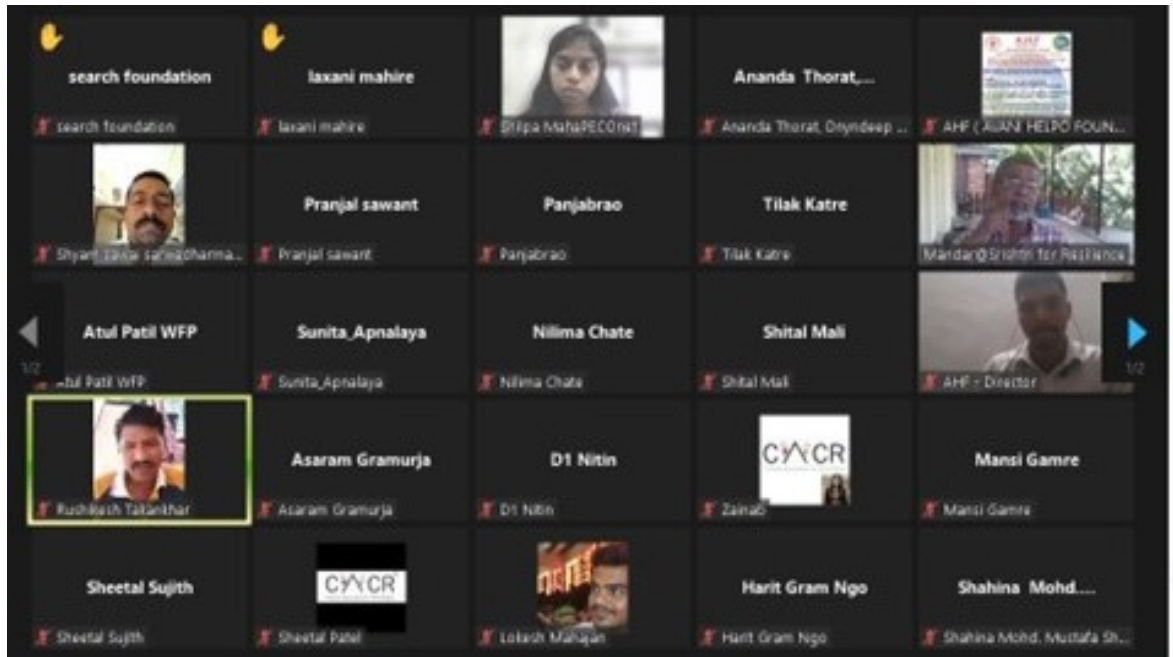

Srishti for Resilience facilitated two days consultation on Gender Based Violence and Solidarity with Lokpanchayat's Grassroots women activists from Ahmednagar district. This workshop helped participant to discuss programatic priorities and plan for activity calendar for 45 villages.

Capacity Building

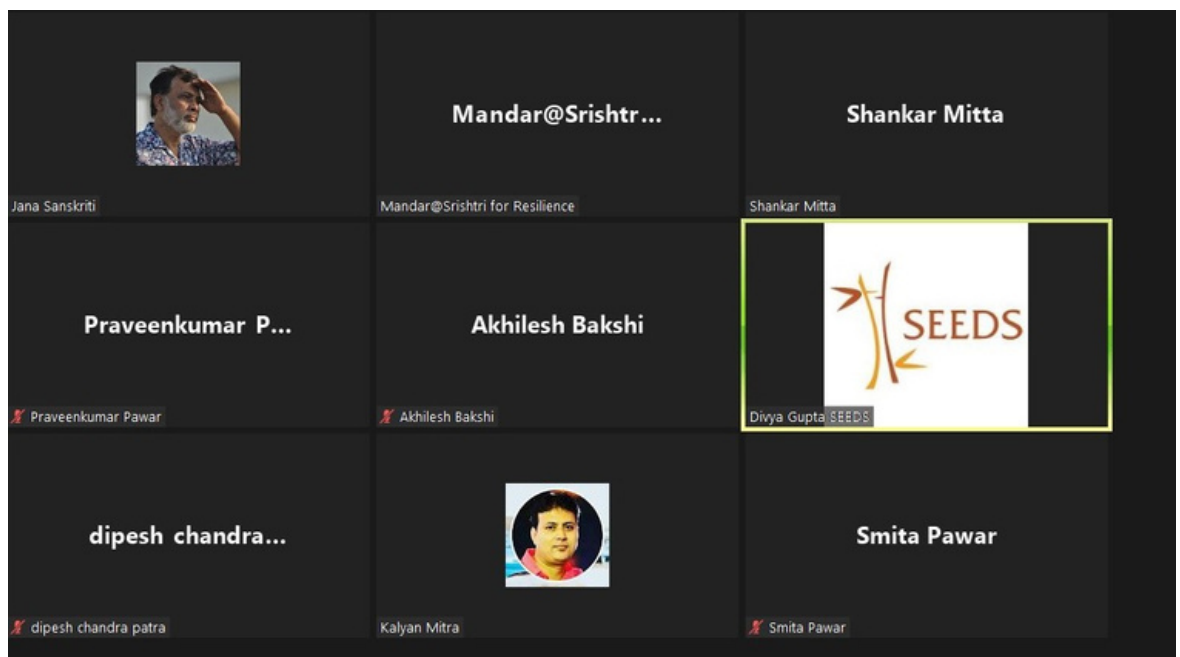

Srishti for Resilience facilitated two ToTs on JJM Phase two training courses at Jalgaon and Parbhani in partnership with 2 KRCs. More than 80 grassroots trainers are participated in these training courses. The training dealt with the key topics of operation and maintenance of water supply schemes.

Capacity Building

Shrishti for Resilience in collaboration with MahaPECONet initiated series of online capacity building on Strengthening Coordination for Effective Disaster Management in Maharashtra. 38 NGO representatives participated in the first online session of this series.

Organisation Mentoring

Experts of Srishti for Resilience in partnership with SEED India is initiated series of online consultations with five NGO partners from Odisha, Assam and Bengal on Becoming Disaster Ready Organisations. This series of consultation includes more than 25 online meetings, for identification of Risks, desining localised response strategy and plans.

Programme Update January 2024

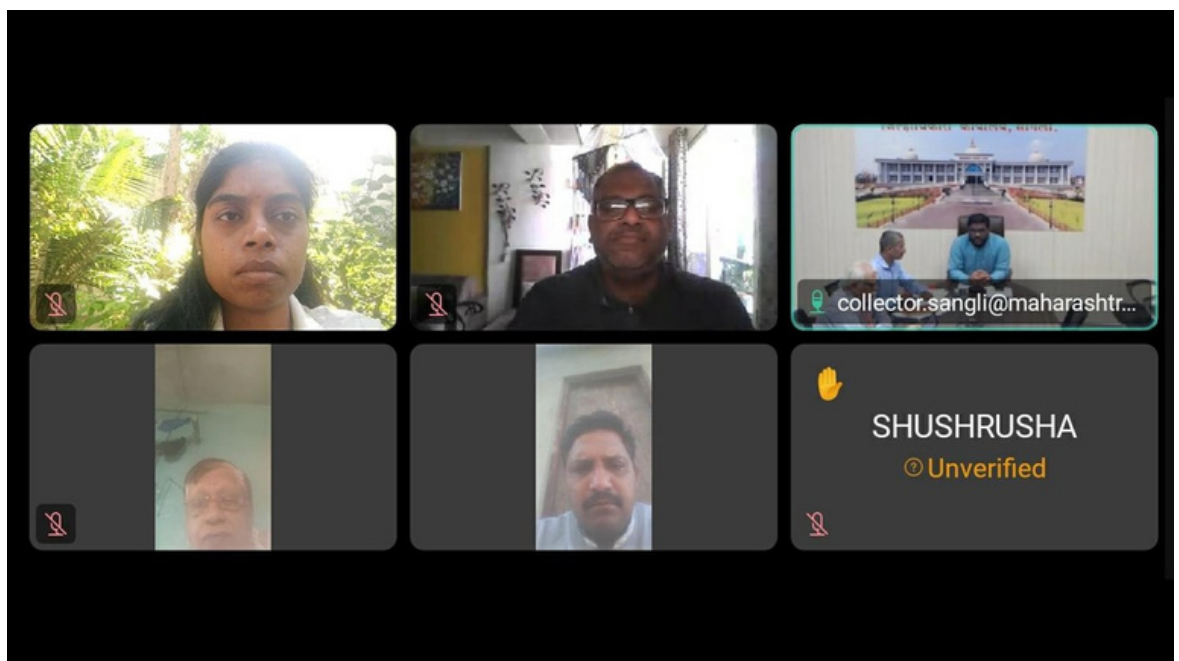

Networking & Coordination

Agenda > ESG and the Wealth Economy - Release of PECOWorld community

Srishti for Resilience participated in round table discussions on WASH and ESG – Welth creation during RISE World Summit (RWS) organized by Idobro and Rise infinity Foundation. RWS brings thought leaders, experts and learners together for influencing action and outcomes for a better world and a greener planet

Networking & Coordination

Srishti for Resilience in partnership with MahaPECONet and in coordination of District Administration Sangali facilitated GO-NGO coordination meeting, orienting NGOs on steps and process of GO-NGO coordination as per SDMA guidance. 15 NGOs, along with respective district officials participated in the meeting.

Capacity Building

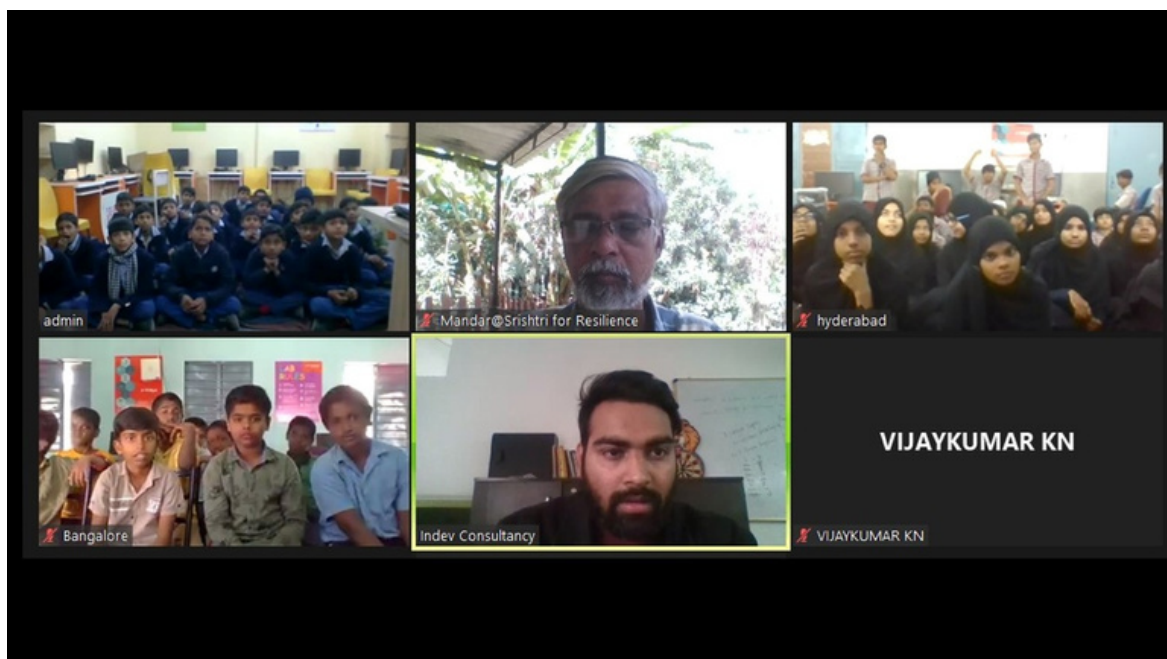

Srishti for Resilience in collaboration with Rotary Club of Daundis facilitated 4th phase of community based capacity building on urban sanitation. This phase helped women to know more about Good Menstrual Hygiene Management, Safe disposal of Sanitary Pads and Solid waste management.

Capacity Building

Srishti for Resilience is facilitated two days children's workshop on We for Climate Action at Samyak Green Nashik. Almost 36 girls and boys from 8th standard along with their teachers are participating in this workshop. This workshop exposed children to ecological agriculture helped them to realise importance of climate change and green lifestyle.

Capacity Building

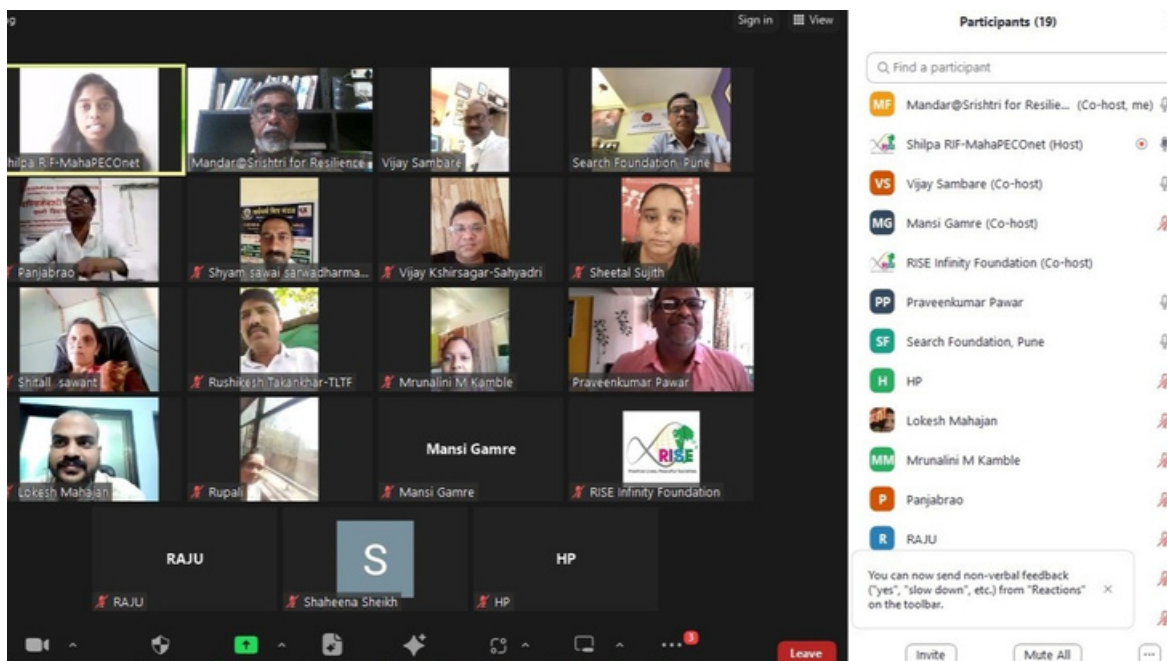

Experts from Srishti for Resilience in collaboration with Indev Consultants facilitated online session with children on We for Climate Action. School children from Bangalore, Hyderabad and Pune participated in this session.

Networking & Coordination

MahaPECONet in collaboration with CYDA, UNICEF Maharashtra and Shrishti for Resilience organised one day Pune Regional DRR Forum for strengthening consistent and systematic coordination among NGO partners. 23 representatives of 15 NGOs from 5 districts of Maharashtra participated in this consultation.

Capacity Building

Srishti for Resilience in collaboration with MahaPECONet facilitated series of three online training sessions with 30 representatives of member organisations. This series helped participants to understand key thematic of programme development for disaster management.

Capacity Building

Experts of Srishti for Resilience in collaboration with SDMA and Palladium (PMU to DM R&R) facilitated two days training course on Disaster Management for Talathis and Circle officers at Sambhaji Nagar. 46 Talathis and Circle officers from Marathwada Region are participated in this training.

Akhilesh Bakshi
Senior Climate Change
& Knowledge
Management Expert

Smita Pawar
Senior Social Worker,
Child Development &
Gender Expert

Praveen Pawar
Senior Humanitarian
Professional & WASH
Expert

Mandar Vaidya
Senior Humanitarian
Professional & DRR
Expert