Supplementary Black Saturday Bushfire Series, Folder 1: 24 April 2011 – 29 July 2011

- [S1.1.1] Simon Benson, 'I won't ever forget: PM haunted by Japanese visit', Sunday Herald Sun, April 24, 2011, p. 4.

Julia Gillard – March 11 tsunami in Japan – death toll now stands at 29,000 – reinforced randomness of natural disasters – comparisons: Victorian bushfires, Qld floods

- [S1.2.1] Stephen McMahon, 'Fire plan to double power bills', Herald Sun, Tuesday, May 3, 2011, p.3.

Household electricity bills will almost double if the Coalition agrees to replace all power lines in high-risk fire areas within 10 years – Powerline Safety Taskforce estimates cost of putting all regional lines underground at $41.5B – bills to go from $315 to about $610 per quarter – powerlines caused five of Black Saturday's biggest fires, including Kilmore East that killed 119 people – Taskforce chairman, Tim Orton – Energy Minister, Michael O'Brien, declined to comment

- [S1.2.2] Peter Janetzki, Murtoa, Letters, 'People power prevents fires', Herald Sun, Thursday, May 5, 2011, p. 31.

Re [S1.2.1] – putting powerlines underground is ridiculous – all that has to be done is to patrol and do maintenance, yearly – the SEC did this before Powercor took over

- [S1.2.3] Mark Dunn, 'Victims of fires can sue', Herald Sun, Wednesday, May 11, 2011, p. 6.

Black Saturday victims can sue the Government and police for failing to properly warn residents after a Supreme Court ruling – Justice Jack Forrest – representative plaintiff, Carol Anne Matthews – SPI Electricity Pty Ltd – Utility Services Corporation Limited

- [S1.2.4] Steve Price, 'History is Overland's nemesis', Herald Sun, Thursday, May 12, 2011, p. 31.

Simon Overland believes in tough policing policy – Nixon seemed to think violent crime and corruption could be solved by hand-holding committees – Nixon deserted her post on Black Saturday – Overland would not do this – former premier Jeff Kennett claims he would have sacked Nixon

- [S1.3.1] Graeme Hammond, 'Winters of discontent', Sunday Herald Sun, May 15, 2011, p. 31.

Snow falls on Marysville – many Black Saturday victims do not have a permanent roof over their heads – 71 people who lost their homes in the 2009 fires live in the temporary village - rebuilding is slow – Bob Gillespie, 66 – VBRRA – Rosemary Fiske and husband Norman have opened a tea shop

- [S1.3.2] (writer not known), 'Red tape is icing on cake for couple', Sunday Herald Sun, May 15, 2011, p. 31.

Christine and Ashraf Doos – patisserie – attempts to re-establish businesses have been frustrated by red tape – Murrundindi Shire Council creating obstacles – Council chief executive, Margaret Abbey – Marysville Caravan Park owner, Christine Adams – complications from finance, planning and insurance

- [S1.4.1] Alan Howe, 'What to do with Simon', Herald Sun, Monday, May 16, 2011, pp. 26-27.

Chief Commissioner of Police, Simon Overland – on Black Saturday we saw the real Nixon – there was no leadership, no vision

- [S1.6.1] Malcolm Holland, 'Climate disaster', Herald Sun, Monday, May 23, 2011, p. 4.

Global warming – climate change – climate commission – Opposition Leader and climate change sceptic, Tony Abbott – coalition policy – Professor Will Steffen, executive director of the Australian National University Climate Change Institute – report; the intensity and times when large bushfires break out in south-eastern Australia – like the 2009 Black Saturday fires – is ‘likely changing with climate change a possible contributing factor.’

- [S1.7.1] Mary Papadakis, ‘Baby Sam a blessing for Black Saturday couple: Out of the ashes’, Sunday Herald Sun, June 12, 2001, p. 3.

Fairytale romance sparked by the Black Saturday bushfires – baby Samantha Terese Fraser – Marysville – GP Lachlan Fraser, 49 – Cassandra Fraser, 42

- [S1.8.1] Peter Rolfe, ‘Diary reveals top-level help’, Sunday Herald Sun, June 12, 2011, p. 26.

Nixon – consulted police, former state government and lawyers before making incomplete witness statement at Royal Commission – pub meal with friends while 173 people died in the state’s worst natural disaster - $200,000-a-year director’s job with Foster’s – former VBRRRA chief, Ben Hubbard – Julia Gillard – Nixon’s diary – Melissa Arch

- [S1.9.1] Phillip Hudson, ‘Grim news on climate: Heat will be a killer’, Herald Sun, Tuesday, June 14, 2011, p. 8.

Melbourne’s water supply could be reduced by 35% and the number of extreme hot days could triple – global warming – ski season could be slashed by up to 96% - number of heat related deaths could reach 1318 per year – Dept of Climate Change Minister, Greg Combet – parts of Victoria are likely to experience increased bushfire risks because of higher temperatures – other predictions

- [S1.10.1] Welcome news, Hot Topic, ‘Overland and out’, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 48.

Now take your AFP mates with you and hand back Victoria Police to a Victorian. This is the best news since Nixon left. Shame on both of them.

- [S1.10.2] Stu, Mentone, Hot Topic, ‘Overland and out’, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 48.

Resigning over some dodgy statistics? Lame. His predecessor went to dinner was Victorians burned to death and she wasn’t forced to resign.

- [S1.10.3] Phil the Fixer, Melbourne, Hot Topic, ‘Overland and out’, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 48.

The destruction of VicPol started with Nixon and hopefully ends with Overland

- [S1.10.4] Proud Australian, Melbourne, Hot Topic, ‘Overland and out’, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 48.

Hopes Herald Sun, police union and Baillieu are satisfied Nixon has been hounded out – hopes next appointee is just as tough on police corruption as Nixon and Overland

- [S1.11.1] Graeme, Melbourne, Letters, ‘Put safety back on police agenda’, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 65.

This is a result of political interference in the police force. It started with Nixon and was followed by Overland

- [S1.12.1] Jeff Kennett, ‘Honest cop just a victim’, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, pp. 38-39.

Overland – honest cop – this chief commissioner did not desert his post as did his predecessor at a time of great community need [S1.14.1] Padraic Murphy, 'Coalition, public bayed for blood', Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 6.

Resignation of Overland – Overland's departure will also be seen by some as a backward step in attempts to loosen the stranglehold of the old boys have on Victoria Police, a project started by his mentor, the former top cop, Christine Nixon [S1.14.2] Neil, Melbourne, Letters, Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 6.

Overland's predecessor was pressured to resign too. The problem is the politicising of the position. The media and the political parties push good police commissioners over the edge

[S1.15.1] Anthony Dowsley, 'It's karma for those with an axe to grind', Herald Sun, Friday, June 17, 2011, p. 7.

Overland's resignation – Noel Ashby – Paul Mullett – Mullett, 'Both Overland and Nixon eroded the position of chief commissioner and my and Noel Ashby's allegation is they used their position and powers together with the OPI to seek a politically motivated outcome.' – former police chief Nixon said she did not believe Overland had been pushed – Nixon denied she had handed Overland a 'poisoned chalice'

[S1.16.1] Keith Moor, 'Former deputy may be the man', Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 4.

Overland's resignation – search for new top cop – after two outsiders with little or no experience of street policing – Nixon from NSW and Overland from the AFP – it would be nice for a home grown officer to get the job

[S1.17.1] Anthony Dowsley, 'Punters rally to Sir Ken', Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 5.

Overland resigns – contenders for the job – Sir Ken Jones – Tim Cartwright – Ken Lay – Steve Fontana – Western Australia commissioner Karl O'Callaghan – Gary Jamieson – Nixon rated as a $201 long shot [S1.17.2] Carly Crawford, 'I'm the old-school copper you need, declares Jamieson', Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 5.

Asst Commissioner Gary Jamieson says he is the one for the top job – 'I think I can make a difference. I had a different philosophy to Christine (Nixon) and to Simon, and they knew that.'

[S1.17.3] Andrew Bolt, caption, Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 5.

'This is not just the end of Simon Overland, but of the whole disastrous Christine Nixon revolution'

[S1.18.1] Andrew Bolt, 'End of Nixon revolution is the best news for Victoria', Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, pp. 16-17.

End of Nixon revolution – the end of a decade-long struggle to turn Victoria Police into a feminist, political force that only the Left could love – Fontana – Nixon went to hairdresser, talked to biographer and knocked off early for dinner on Black Saturday

[S1.20.1] Big V, Altona, 50/50, Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 82.

Two police chiefs forced out in two years – one as a result of a fire storm, the other as a result of a political storm

[S1.20.2] Local Will Do Thanks, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 82.

Appointment of replacement for Overland – Asst Commissioner Steve Fontana would be a great choice. He ran the Black Saturday fires when the chief went to dinner.

[S1.20.3] Norm Fraser, Somerville, Letters, 'Report won't vindicate Labor', Herald Sun, Saturday, June 18, 2011, p. 82.

So Daniel Andrews thinks the former Labor government is in the clear with law-and-order – how about the fact they appointed Nixon and Overland [S1.21.1] Alan Howe, 'Just dying to do well', Herald Sun, Monday, June 20, 2011, p. 24.

Nixon ... shamed herself on Black Saturday, but for the first time in some years a succession plan was in place. She would be replaced by Simon Overland, whom she had chosen. She would, after all, know better than most the sort of leader Labor wanted

[S1.22.1] Geoff Wilkinson, 'Firey finally cleared', Herald Sun, Saturday, June 25, 2011, p. 3.

Ron Philpott, 67, is no longer a suspect in lighting the Murrumbidgee fire on Black Saturday – police now believe the fire was not deliberately lit – Supreme Court Judge Jack Forrest has ruled survivors can sue police and government for failing to provide adequate warnings

[S1.22.2] Peter Rolfe, 'Bills will soar', Sunday Herald Sun, June 26, 2011, pp.1 & 4.

A confidential Black Saturday report warns electricity bills will skyrocket if Baillieu keeps a key pre-election promise to replace and bury powerlines – rises could be as much as $740 every year for the next 10 years – Baillieu has backed all 67 Black Saturday Royal Commission recommendations – former Brumby government rejected the powerline recommendation – Labor energy spokeswoman, Lily D'Ambrossio accused the government of shielding the report – Powercor – SP AusNet – Marysville – Kinglake – Energy Safe Victoria – it is believed power lines were responsible for sparking five of the blazes on February 7, 2009

[S1.24.1] Editorial, 'Power play challenges Ted Baillieu', Sunday Herald Sun, June 26, 2011, p. 89.

Whilst in opposition Baillieu backed all Royal Commission recommendations and promised to implement all of them if elected – Liberal MP, Christine Fyffe – Powerline Bushfire Safety Taskforce report dated 23 December 2010 – cost of burying and fixing powerlines, $20 billion

[S1.24.2] BusterH, CBD, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p. 28.

The electricity companies should cover the powerline maintenance with their insurance

[S1.24.3] Keith, Melbourne, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p.28.

What happened to the days when standing service charges covered infrastructure maintenance? Isn't that what charges are designed for?

[S1.24.4] Chris Antony, Syndal, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p. 28.

Labor failed us when they allowed the electricity and gas companies to charge what they wanted. It's too much.

[S1.24.5] Powerman, Torquay, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p. 28.

If we chose to live in a fire-prone area, then we have to carry the burden and pay for whatever it takes not to repeat the events of '09. What are we saying – lives are worth less than money?

[S1.24.6] Jane, Shepparton, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p. 28.

Letting everyone ... collect dead trees along the side of roads wouldn't hurt the fire risk

[S1.24.7] Baillieu is a dud, Brighton, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p. 28.

Just another stuff-up from this lazy premier. Why didn't he do his sums before he ran his mouth off? ... It's no wonder the Brumby government said no to this silly proposal.

[S1.24.8] Renee, Melbourne, Hot Topic, Herald Sun, Monday, June 27, 2011, p. 28.

I am old enough to remember when our taxes used to fund everything [S1.24.9] Elizabeth, Warburton, 50/50, Herald Sun, Tuesday, June 28, 2011, p. 24.

If country people can help pay for the desalination plant why can't city people help pay for powerline infrastructure?

[S1.24.10] Jeremy, Coburg, 50/50, Herald Sun, Tuesday, June 28, 2011, p. 24.

Why should I pay for the underground powerlines to make the lifestyle of bush dwellers safe while I have overhead lines in my street and I don't ask them to pay for a safety fence around my swimming pool?

[S1.25.1] Padraic Murphy, 'Lessons in leadership: Nixon talks a hot issue', Herald Sun, Friday, July 1, 2011, p. 14.

Former Chief Commissioner, Nixon, widely condemned for going for a pub meal on the day of the devastating Black Saturday fires, is delivering workshops on leadership – Liberal MP, Fran Bailey – Nixon's biography – Age reporter, Jo Chandler

[S1.25.2] Editorial, 'Black spot remains with Ted Baillieu', Sunday Herald Sun, July 3, 2011, p. 89.

Cost of power line reforms recommended by the Royal Commission – Energy Minister, Michael O'Brien - $20 billion cost - $50m committed by government to problem

[S1.25.3] Peter Rolfe, '$50m won't fix lines', Sunday Herald Sun, July 3, 2011, p. 19.

Energy Minister, Michael O'Brien, told $50m for powerline reform grossly inadequate – Powerline Bushfire Safety Taskforce

[S1.25.4] (writer not known), 'Link to global warming rejected', Herald Sun, Tuesday, July 5, 2011, p. 15.

Professor Neville Nicholls says that global warming cannot be blamed for Black Saturday bushfires – but, 'global warming has exacerbated the frequency and intensity of these heatwaves'

[S1.25.5] Mike, Melbourne, Text Talk, Herald Sun, Monday, July 4, 2011, p. 23.

Nixon is giving keynote presentations on her leadership skills in advance of her book launch - the woman has the hide of an elephant

[S1.26.1] Nick Leys, 'Court rules on fire info', Herald Sun, Thursday, July 7, 2011, p. 17.

Powercor has been ordered to produce documents on the causes of a fire on Black Saturday – Coleraine – Tracey Perry and Terrance Sagar lost their home and are suing Powercor – alleged fire caused by falling power lines – Supreme Court Justice, Ross Robson

[S1.26.2] Kelly Ryan, 'Leader of the pack', Herald Sun, Monday, July 18, 2011, p. 21.

Senior Constable Peter Collyer – helped residents flee Marysville on Black Saturday – adopts six retired greyhounds

- [S1.27.1] Stephen Drill, 'Footy legend fights back from Black Saturday losses: OK in the long hall', Herald Sun, Tuesday, July 19, 2011, p. 9.

Brownlow medalist Kevin Murray, 73, lost home in Flowerdale on Black Saturday

- [S1.28.1] Amelia Harris & Michael Harvey, 'PM under fire for Nixon book deal', Herald Sun, Thursday, July 21, 2011, p. 3.

Black Saturday survivors and Jeff Kennett have criticized Prime Minister Julia Gillard's decision to launch Nixon's biography, Fair Cop – the former chief commissioner went out for dinner the night 173 people died in the state's worst natural disaster – Jo Chandler – criticism of Nixon's leadership – Kinglake survivor, Bessie McMahon – Royal Commission report – Laine MacDonald of Flowerdale – Carol Matthews, who lost her son on Black Saturday – MUP CEO, Louise Adler

- [S1.29.1] Steve Price, 'Grilling is a must for leaders', Herald Sun, Thursday, July 21, 2011, p. 31.

Seeing London's outgoing Metropolitan Police Commissioner, Sir Paul Stephenson, being grilled by an all-party British House of Commons committee reminded me of the Nixon appearance at the Royal Commission into the Black Saturday bushfires – Nixon's dining at a North Melbourne hotel on the night of the fires – spending the day on her biography – Victorian's felt let down

- [S1.29.2] Sally Morrell, 'Gillard on the wrong page helping Nixon', Herald Sun, Friday, July 22, 2011, p. 35.

MUP CEO, Louise Adler – Gillard criticized for supporting launch of Nixon's book – Royal Commission found Nixon's leadership inadequate, particularly her decision to go to dinner

- [S1.29.3] Black Saturday Survivor (just), Flowerdale, Letter of the Day, Herald Sun, Friday, July 22, 2011, p. 32.

When will Kennett and some survivors get over Nixon's decision to go out to dinner? - see [S1.28.1] – the firefighting was addressed by qualified, delegated people – even I had to eat while trying to save my dying mate

- [S1.29.4] Tony Vella, Epping, 50/50, Herald Sun, Friday, July 22, 2011, p. 32.

I see Gillard is going to launch the biography of Nixon – how appropriate – one unpopular, poor leader giving her support to another who wouldn't know leadership if she ate it for dinner

- [S1.29.5] Vox Pop, 'Is Julia Gillard wise to launch Christine Nixon's book?', Herald Sun, Friday, July 22, 2011, p.33.

Stacey Massis, 26, Melbourne: politically it's not a good move – Awhi Tait, 19, Point Cook: the PM has bigger responsibilities to worry about – Anthony King, 18, Swan Hill: No. Julia should be worrying about the state of the country – Cathy Bowden, 57, Murrumbidgee: Yes. Nixon is a good woman who made one big mistake

- [S1.30.1] Weekend, Herald Sun, Saturday, July 23, 2011, p. 1.

[S1.38.1] Editorial, 'Just sad and so very silly', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 34.

Nixon – Fair Cop – fattist agenda – attitudes on media – attack on Royal Commission – Overland – Teague – Herald Sun claims it was the messenger – 173 died – dinner with friends, hairdresser, biographer – only herself to blame

[S1.38.2] Jeff Kennett, 'Nixon must wear blame', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 34.

Nixon – Fair Cop – Nixon claims she was attacked because of her size and being female – Nixon is wrong – she blames the media – Overland – only herself to blame – misleading evidence to Royal Commission

[S1.38.3] Lachlan Fraser, Black Saturday survivor, 'Leadership absent as fires snuffed out life', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, pp. 34-35.

Nixon – Fair Cop – failed to show effective leadership skills – Marysville – Ash Wednesday – Canberra fires – Royal Commission criticised her leadership – head of VBRR – mental health issues – substance abuse

[S1.39.1] Greg Davies, 'Leader out of depth', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 35.

Nixon will be remembered as a woman out of her depth – accepted a free $40,000 holiday – on Black Saturday deserted her post – hair done – biographer – went out to dinner – while Victorians perished in one of the most horrendous natural disasters in the history of this country – misled Royal Commission – blames everyone else for her failings – media reported facts – Nixon can only blame herself

[S1.40.1] Steve, Bendigo, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.

Another disastrous appointment by the Bracks/Brumby government ... let's hope the police force can recover

[S1.40.2] Al, Frankston, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.

Nixon is a good person and deserves to have a voice after all the bull..t she has had to deal with [S1.40.3] Rocky, Victoria, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.

The lesson to be learnt is to accept your mistakes and deal with the consequences

[S1.40.4] Still doesn't get it, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.

Nixon needs to admit she was wrong and apologise. Can't believe Nixon thinks her actions were appropriate [S1.40.5] L, St Andrews, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.

Nixon was a scapegoat – it's not because she is fat, but because she is a woman

- [S1.40.6] Anon, Ballarat, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- Nixon unfairly treated by the Royal Commission – had nothing to do with the loss of life – did not start the fires – not a firefighter – had people under her command
- [S1.40.7] Neil Penny, Singapore, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- 'Fattist' agenda? – more likely an absentee agenda
- [S1.40.8] TarraRose, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- Missing in action – don't play victim – disgraceful lack of judgment – hang your head in shame
- [S1.40.9] Paul, Melbourne, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- Nixon should have left way before the bushfires – never up to the job and put there by politicians
- [S1.40.10] Matthew, Melbourne, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- The Herald Sun didn't like Nixon and highlighted negatives constantly. It's a pity the evil arsonists weren't pursued with such consistency. What have we learnt? – Nixon had dinner, one should have reasonable clearance around buildings – fire is unpredictable and deadly – no one saw the disaster coming and people were looking for culprits
- [S1.40.11] Tim D'Riordan, Melbourne, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- Why haven't News Ltd papers, instead of undermining Nixon for years, given more space to reducing police corruption?
- [S1.40.12] Tommy Hammond, Melbourne, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- Nixon's defence to criticism is because she is fat (I was expecting sexism) – Overland has the guts to face his critics
- [S1.40.13] Ray, Melbourne, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.
- Nixon did not show leadership on Black Saturday or subsequently
- [S1.40.14] AB, Melbourne, Hot Topic, 'Nixon fire storm', Herald Sun, Friday, July 29, 2011, p. 36.

Victoria again has a bushfire emergency – less catastrophic than Black Saturday – worst conditions since Black Saturday – risk will increase in future, according to CSIRO (more extreme weather days, longer fire seasons)

Causes – Mother Nature – lightning strikes – (accidents – power lines) account for 32% - arson

More lives lost in Victoria than any other part of Australia – 475 since 1851 – Black Thursday, 1851 – Black Friday 1939 – Ash Wednesday, 1983 – Black Saturday, 2009

Lessons learnt from Black Saturday and subsequent Royal Commission have largely been enacted and effective – communication to public better – co-operation between agencies improved

Suburbs expanding into rural areas – people fighting fires in singlets and thongs not prepared – Fire Services Commissioner, Craig Lapsley – some emergency messages not received until after fire (eg Warrandyte)
