Media Studies Vision

Successful students who

- Are independent with their own learning.
- Engage with a variety of media forms both in and out the classroom.
- Understanding the context of media, as a subject, in the wider world.
 - To be able to question media forms in a perceptive way.
 - Be reflective, using PCS marking for support.

Confident students who

- Embed the understanding of subject specific vocabulary into their responses.
 - Voice their opinions in class on their own volition.
 - Prepared to take risks without the fear of failure.
 - Challenging preconceptions and thinking 'outside of the box.'
- Bring their own experiences of media consumption to inform deeper discussions.
- Recognise the importance of listening to others and how it can enhance or shape their own opinion.

Responsible students who

- Needs and wants of a consumer/target audience's social, cultural, and moral issues integrated into learning.
 - Take part in enrichment activities.
 - Enter both local and national competitions.
- Meet deadlines for homework and controlled assessments.
 - Respect the views and opinions of others.
 - Follow the behaviour policy.
