

WORD Of the WEEK

Can you guess the word of the week?

M _ _ _ _

Meaning: a person who suffers or dies for their beliefs, often admired by others.

Summer Term

WORD Of the WEEK

Can you guess the word of the week?

Martyr

Meaning: a person who suffers or dies for their beliefs, often admired by others.

Greek Root Word:

The word "martyr" originates from the Greek word "μάρτυς" (martys), which means "witness."

Task: Can you think of any Martyrs?

Greek Root Word:

The word "martyr" originates from the Greek word "μάρτυς" (martys), which means "witness."

Task: Did you get any of these?

St George

Joan of Arc

Emily Davison

Ilse Weber

Martin Luther King Jr.

TUTOR LITERACY: WORD Of the WEEK

Activities

- What do you know about these martyrs?
- St George, Emily Davison, Martin Luther King Jr.
- Do you think beliefs are worth dying for?

Why do we celebrate St Georges day?

