

From 'Vision to Provision in Art'

Successful Learner – who enjoys learning, making at least good progress and achieving

- Achieve their potential through independent investigations and personalisation of project themes.
 - Are articulate in explaining and discussing their work visually, orally, and in written form.
 - Are willing to share their ideas and skills with their peers
- Are willing to take creative risks and show resilience when facing a challenge such as a new technique

Confident Individual – who is able to live a safe, healthy and fulfilled life

- Can explore and express their ideas through a range of media, materials and techniques.
- Are willing to investigate creative practises independently and undertake their own interest led artist research.
 - Can make visual connections between Art in a contemporary/historical context and their own environment.

Responsible Citizen – who makes a positive contribution to society

- Can form and justify opinions about the artwork of others from a range of cultural and historical contexts.
- Recognise the role of Art in society from galleries, public art, and the wide range of creative industries.
 - Are tolerant of the views and opinions of others.