

From 'Vision to Provision in Geography'

Successful Learner – who enjoys learning, making at least good progress and achieving

- Develops a curiosity of the world around them.
- Is able to apply a range of geographical skills to make sense of the world.
- Analyse and evaluate geographical issues at a range of scales and contexts

Confident Individual – who is able to live a safe, healthy and fulfilled life

- Able to work effectively both independently and as part of a team in different environments from in school to external learning opportunities
- Uses their knowledge and understanding of the earth and human interaction to challenge ideas and prompt change.

Responsible Citizen – who makes a positive contribution to society

- Understand the contribution people and themselves make to a sustainable society
 - Have empathy towards the values and opinions of others in different contexts
- Recognises the challenges the earth and humankind face and be a catalyst for positive change.