

From 'Vision to Provision in Citizenship'

Successful Learner – who enjoys learning, making at least good progress and achieving

To be a successful learner in Citizenship:

To be able to use PCS as a reflective tool within the lessons.

Be able to work in groups to help motivate and inspire others in the class.

Read local and national newspapers to understand how the topics relate to what is happening in the world.

To complete homework so that they can develop their knowledge and understanding allowing them to make good progress.

To value the topics studied to be respectful towards others around them.

Confident Individual – who is able to live a safe, healthy and fulfilled life

To be a confident individual in Citizenship:

To be confident when sharing their own views and opinions within the class discussions.

Ability to work with others in a mature way.

To be able to relate their own situations and experiences with the rest of the class

Can compete during different challenges within the Active Citizenship project.

Responsible Citizen – who makes a positive contribution to society

To be a responsible citizen in Citizenship:

To complete homework that is set.

To be able to follow the classroom rules to show respect to others around them.

To appreciate others cultures and customs when looking at newspaper articles.

To be able to use the justice system in Britain to understand what is right and wrong.

To take on leadership roles within the mock trial to support and help others.

To be able to listen to others views and opinions.