At the present time this document lacks sufficient content to be of much value to the general reader. It has been included in my Public Knuuz folder simply to provide a document that the Welcome document can reference in its text. I suggest you go read that document first and then wait a while for this one to get fleshed out more completely.

9:55:41 AM

Adding introductory material. Focus for this session is to streamline the process of a new user getting started with my Public Knuuz collection.

4:32:56 PM

Added the Welcome slide. That led to making a second document that is just for welcoming new users of the site.

Also did some clean-up on the use of dividers and headings. Try using the links in this section that move you around from section to section.

Setting up this document. I am saving many versions as I add material so that I have a reference when introducing others to the Knuuz Sharing process.
