

Venkata Rao (Venkat)

Vice President, Solutions,
E&P/Upstream (Energy)

- 35+ years of experience in managing programs related to seismic 2D,3D data acquisition, processing and interpretation, E&P data management covering seismic, well log, drilling, and production data
- Experience as a geophysicist in collaborating with the subsurface, drilling and production teams to define the life cycle based well data requirement needs and operations designs
- Venkat brings leadership vision to head solutions for Energy vertical. Venkat used to lead the COEs at ONGC, Tech Mahindra, TCS & Satyam
- In his distinguished experience in Data acquisition and E&P data management with ONGC, India (1985-2007), he was the key architect for conceptualization and implementation of ONGC's EPINET
- Worked as the South Asia regional lead of Energistics and actively works in the areas of WITSML / PRODML (real time drilling and production standards) and Geophysical standards development and proliferation
- Designed solutions in subsurface data management, hydrocarbon accounting and ERP and led global support teams
- Master's degree in Geophysics, Andhra University, Visakhapatnam with an MBA (Finance) - IGNOU, New Delhi