Reports of House Progression

Sister Gretchen Gitaround

Sister Gretchen told us that the monthly report was sent in on time to the UNPC. She told us to keep working on our projects and to get them in writing for the Mission to approve. She congratulated Guard Trie on her successful project, Gong-A-Roke which turned into Horn-A-Roke after the gong broke. We are on track to finish by our one year mark.

Old Business

Pride booth

Guard Trie reported that we made over $250 at the Pride Event last month and offered it to Pride who told us to keep it to help with our Nonprofit. We made $110 on our Rocket Pins and the rest came from a former member who is a drag queen and wanted to donate her tips to us. Sister Roda Horse.

Thanksgiving Dinner with the Sisters, plus Drag Queen Delivery

Sister DP

Our third project is November 27th (the night before Thanksgiving Day. It will be our "Feed the Homeless, Tip a Drag Queen/King". Plans are in place to deliver meals to homes in town at $10 per plate. If a home has 4 or more orders, the Drag Queen or Drag King will perform a number in the home. Any tips made by the Drag person will go to them and subsidize their gas and time. We have 8 Drag persons delivering with 7 on stand-by who are anxious to be involved. We have sold enough to cover our expenses and we have close to $200 in sales already accounted for. Our cut off is this Sunday by noon. We anticipate many last minute orders. The food was generously donated by the church who graciously gives us a place to meet (Community Life Church). Within the first week after we started advertising, we had enough money to file for our Non-Profit and pay the fee. The remaining money raised will go to feed the homeless again at Christmas with a similar type of event. We have been contacted by several people in our community, straight and LGBTQIA alike, who have volunteered to work our kitchen freeing us to work directly with the homeless who come for dinner. We are VERY excited about this project and have already made plans to produce this event on a yearly basis. This project is headed by Sister Doublepenetration as her mission project.
