

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

28 December 2021

Singapore SIM Racing Drivers - SEA EC 2021 Schedule.

24th December 2021 – 2nd January 2022 - Raceroom Leaderboard

3rd January 2022, Monday MSS National Qualifiers – Singapore Drivers

1900hrs - Drivers Briefing (Ballot of track/fuel/tires wear)
1930hrs - Practice server opens
2000hrs - Qualifying starts (6 mins)
2006hrs - Race starts (30 mins with compulsory pitstop)

8th January 2022, Saturday

1900hrs - Driver Briefing
1930hrs - 2230hrs - Free Practice (3 hours)

9th January 2022, Sunday_– Top 2 Singapore representatives

Individual Competition

1100hrs - Practice Server opens for Race 1
1130hrs - Qualifying for Race 1
1200hrs - Race 1 (15 mins)
1230hrs - Race 2 (30 mins - reverse grid race)

Team Competition

1400hrs - Practice Server opens for Race 3
1430hrs - Qualifying for Race 3
1500hrs - Race 3 (40 mins)

The competition will be known as IUEM eRacing GP by RaceRoom.

Top two SIM Racing Drivers from each Southeast Asian country will compete in the final round on 9th January 2022 that comprises individual competition and a team competition. They will have to race in the Z-Challenger Audi RS3 in their nations' colour over three rounds on the day of competition.

All Winners of IUEM eRacing GP by RaceRoom will receive prize money from a pool of USD$10,000 while fans of Sim Racing will be able to catch the finals live on eGG Network.

Motor Sports Singapore

About Motor Sports Singapore (MSS) eSports Working Group:

MSS is the National Sports Association (NSA) governing Motor Sports in Singapore. The eSports Working Group under MSS objective is to help nurture and accelerate eSports SIM Racing across all age groups, educate and align the industry to reach its maximum capabilities.