

RESTORING HONOR WHEN OFFENSE STRIKES DAILY DEVOTIONAL – THE ASSEMBLY

Date: Wednesday, August 6, 2025

Day 4 – The Offender is Still Your Brother

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.~ Matthew 5:9

Devotion

Blessed are the peacemakers—not the peace-lovers. Anyone can tolerate peace; few are willing to fight for it. Being a peacemaker means stepping into mess with the purpose of bringing mercy.

Even when someone interrupts, offends, or acts out, they're still a soul worth redeeming. Jesus didn't come for the well-behaved—He came for the broken. When you forget the offender is still your brother, you've already lost the Kingdom heart.

Application

How do you typically view those who cause disruption? With mercy—or irritation?

Prayer

Lord, teach me to see the messy as redeemable. Help me become a true peacemaker, not just a peacekeeper.

Journal Prompt

Who have I mentally written off that God still wants to reach?
