Hear, O Israel,
the Lord our God,
the Lord is One.
Praised be  the name
Of His glorious sovereignty
forever and ever.

And you shall love the Lord your God
with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your might. And these words which I command you this day shall be upon your heart. And you shall teach them thoroughly to your children. And you shall speak of them when you sit in your house,

when you walk on the road,
when you lie down and when you rise.
You shall bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for a reminder between your eyes.
You shall write them on the door
posts of your house and upon your gates.

Reader:

When the Word entered the world
freedom entered it.

Response:

The whole Torah exists
only to establish peace.

Reader:

Its highest teaching is love and kindness

Response:

Love the LORD your God with all your heart. And what is hateful to you do not to any person.

Reader: That is the whole Torah,
Go and learn it, honoring one another,
Doing acts of kindness and making peace.
These are our highest duties.

Response:

The study of Torah is equal to them all because it leads to them all.

Reader:

Let us learn in order to teach

Response:

Let us learn in order to do.

Reader:

She is a tree of Life to those who hold fast
And all who cling to her find happiness.
Her ways are ways of pleasantness
and all her paths are peace.

Response:

Help us to return to You, Oh LORD,
Then truly shall we return.
Renew our days as in the past,
The days of our first love.

Our Father who art in heaven Hallowed be Your name! Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. Let us not enter into testing but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom and the power and the glory forever and ever Amen!
