Day 6 – The Test is in the Interruption

My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry, ²⁰ because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. James 1:19-20

Devotion

Anyone can look holy when things go according to plan. But the true test of maturity is found in the moment of interruption. That's where your real reflexes show.

Anger is quick. Wisdom is patient. And honor shows itself by how you handle the unexpected. Don't waste the test. Let it reveal what still needs to grow—and where God is already working.

Application

When was the last time an interruption brought out the worst in you? What could you have done differently?

Prayer

Lord, shape my reactions. Train my spirit to respond with grace, not heat. Use the interruptions to make me more like You.

Journal Prompt

What does this week's biggest interruption say about my spiritual growth?
