LWCA Yard Sale This Weekend

Newcomer Debbie Shaffer stepped up and has organized our Lakeridge West Community Yard Sale for this Saturday, October 3. Twenty households are already scheduled to participate in the event that will feature household items, tools, baby gear, toys, and more.

The event is being heavily advertised on social media outside Lakeridge West and a big master sign will attract motorists passing the entrance to our neighborhood. Addresses of the participating households are listed on the flyer. The Yard Sale will be held from 11 am to 2 pm. Rain date is Sunday, October 4.

Thank you, Debbie, for suggesting and chairing this event!

Halloween Will Be Better Than Ever!

The spooky season will be celebrated in Lakeridge West on Saturday, October 24, with our Trunk or Treat and a Haunted House featuring FIVE decorated “rooms” (tents). The fun starts at 4 pm in the Pool parking lot and continues well into dark.

Chairs Cynthia Montagnino and Amanda Wong Delgaiso are hosting but they need volunteers to sign up and decorate a room, decorate a car trunk or truck, and help set up earlier in the day. Those decorating rooms or car trunks arrive earlier in the afternoon.

“Rooms” can be decorated with any theme you imagine; ideas might be a photo gallery, a pirate shipwreck, a witch’s kitchen, or a graveyard. Families can “team” up on a room, if that works. In the past, our car trunks have been decorated like Ghostbusters, Hocus Pocus, and the Nightmare Before Christmas. Children and even older teens and adults gorge on all the treats that are provided.

Lots of hands are need to make this Halloween a success. If you can volunteer, donate, or have questions, email themontagninos@gmail.com.

Best Barbeque EVER Closes Out Summer Season

Labor Day Weekend kicked off with an Adult Tiki Night sponsored by Mike Kurtas, and then moved onto our Farewell Barbeque prepared by Resident Daniel Delgaiso the next day (Saturday). We skipped the potluck sides from residents and opted for Dan to prep, grill, and feed pool guests all day with mouth-watering, homemade specialties. Dan, who operates a catering business, had plenty of leftovers for Saturday and Sunday. A few residents commented it was the best LWCA barbeque ever.

In case you missed it, Dan served marinated chicken, hand-shaped burgers, all-beef hot dogs, pulled pork, corn on the cob, baked beans, mac and cheese, mixed green salad, and two kinds of broccoli salad with cranberries, sunflower seeds, and bacon. And the dessert table didn’t disappoint either with decorated cookies, cakes, and ice cream. If you can’t wait till next summer, Dan is available for private catering also!

And Onto the 2027 Season, We Go...

Although summer is over and we have just the LWCA Yard Sale and Halloween coming up, the Board is already planning for the 2027 season. The pool is winterized and the new furniture has been shrink-wrapped. Repairs and maintenance projects have been identified, and quotes obtained on these projects and on our wish list. Paving the driveway is a necessity.

The Board also takes a look back and seeks your feedback on the 2026 season. Were the hours convenient? Did you enjoy the activities? How can we improve your pool experience? Send your thoughts to pool@lakeridgewest.org or speak to any Board member. As we get into November, we will be building our 2027 budget and inviting you to our Annual Meeting in January 2027. Watch for info.
