Lakeridge West Kicked Off Halloween

Treats, a petting zoo, pony rides, a movie, and more

Angela and Scott Pappas (above left) were among many residents who volunteered to present our second annual Trunk or Treat Spooktacular; almost 100 children participated along with their parents, grandparents, and neighbors.

The Pappas Family sponsored a petting zoo and pony rides. Sharon and Tim Honig (left) kept us fed with burgers and hot dogs. Amanda Wong Delgaiso painted our young ones' faces, and Michele Montalbano donated arts and crafts.

Thanks to the Shafrens and Talamo for Dunkin Donuts, and the Quinlans, Fitzgeralds, and Montagninos for candy donations. And a huge thank you to those who decorated their trunks, and handed out treats to our ghouls, Harry Potter fans, witches, and pirates.

Justin Rollings spent lots of effort setting up our outdoor screen and speakers for our after-dusk showing of The Nightmare Before Christmas. Congratulations to Kasia Przepiora and her family who won the pumpkin decorating contest!

And, of course, none of this would happen without the organizational skills of trustee Brenda Rollings! Brenda arrives early and stays late to assure our social activities are the best!

And the Work Still Gets Done!

Winterization of our pool complex is taking place. Water lines are blown out, the water level in the main pool is lowered, six cover anchors repaired, and the cover installed. The restrooms also get winterized, trash pickup and utilities are cut back, and a security system is being planned.

Thanks to our diligent Facilities Committee, comprised of Steve Bonavita, Gina Talamo, and Terry Monaghan for their many behind-the-scenes contributions to our facility. The playground and basketball courts remain open for residents throughout the winter.
