

LWCA Is Off to a Great Summer

The sun made a rare appearance on Saturday, May 24, and 150 LWCA residents and guests kicked off the 2025 summer season with unforgettable memories! Special thanks to:

Trustees Cynthia Montagnino and Amanda Wong for advance planning and hosting a great LWCA barbeque.

Sponsors included: Insurance Broker Daniel Delgaio and Laura Sciove of Green Light Realty (Ice Cream Emergency Truck), the Oliveras-Yu and Montagnino Families (Bounce House), Mortgage Now Inc. (DJ Christ Tamayo), the Warley Family (Flag Decorations), Residents who brought amazing potluck dishes that included salads, mac/cheese, flautas, zucchini bread, cookies, and more, and our Volunteers who set up and cleaned up.

Thanks to Greg Newman, his fur baby Ronnie Girl, and his 1983 Eldorado Biarritz that led the Parade; Tom Quinlan for the parachute fun for all ages; the SOBFD fire truck; and Jessica Oliveras-Yu, Cynthia Montagnino, and Amanda Wong for T-shirt painting.

The traditional "First in the Pool" contest was won by Ryan Goldman, but he was soon followed by other brave souls! We hope you enjoyed our Opening Day and let's keep LWCA's energy going!

Pool opens daily on Friday, June 20, with End-of-School Party slated for Saturday, June 21. Watch for our Summer Calendar of Events.

Brian Banzaca is our G.O.A.T.

There are a few LWCA residents who ALWAYS show up, and Brian Banzaca is one of them. You need the deck washed? He shows up with his powerwasher and spends two days on it. He fixes lighting, hangs mandated signs, and cleans grills. And that was just 2025! LWCA presented him with the GOAT Trophy on Opening Day.

There were many neighborhood volunteers this year (see our May issue of LWCA newsletter) but we are especially grateful to Jason Lennon who carted three huge piles of branches and debris to the dumpster; Christiam Estivenson who took down broken fencing; and Karen Paton who tilled and planted wildflowers on the former tennis court. Our LWCA spirit is alive and well!!
