

Include LWCA in your Fourth of July Weekend Plans!

The weekend forecast is hot, sunny, maybe scattered showers. But unless we hear thunder or lightening, our LWCA pool and amenities are open and waiting for your family and friends to celebrate our independence. Although there is no "official" party this weekend (not enough volunteers), our LWCA lifeguards are ready to assist you and your guests. The pool is opened 11 am to 7 pm today, Saturday, July 1, through July 4. Thereafter, we open at 1 pm, with some late-night swims starting next Friday, July 7.

Pack your lunch and snacks, order in your favorite takeout, or share a potluck with friends. Play pingpong, ladder ball, basketball, volleyball, and of course, enjoy the pool. Wifi available too. Our LWCA campus is your home away from home; enjoy it.

The Times, They Are a-Changin'

Bob Dylan's 1978 lyrics echoed recently as a few residents report mail thefts, occasional car breakins, an aggressive solicitor, and other incidents that affect our well-being. The Old Bridge Police Department offers a crime prevention guide that offers pointers in all areas of home and personal safety. Here are just a few reminders to help us keep LWCA as safe as possible.

- Always lock your doors - house, garage, and cars, - even if you are out for only a few minutes. Do not leave valuables in your car, ever.
- Leave spare keys in well-hidden places, not under doormats or above doorways.
- Keep your name off your door and mailbox. Avoid leaving notes on your door for friends or service people. Ask to see the credentials of any salespeople.
- Install outdoor lighting and trim shrubbery and bushes below your windows.
- Put outgoing mail in a USPS mailbox or deliver to Post Office. Do not place it in your mailbox for pickup. Bring in your mail and packages as soon as possible.
- Keep an eye out for your neighbors and report any suspicious activity. Let a neighbor know if you will be away.
- Use our closed Facebook group, www.facebook.com/groups/lakeridgewest, to alert your neighbors of concerns. Other online township groups may be helpful in knowing what's happening elsewhere in Old Bridge.

Host Your Own Summer Party at LWCA

If you have a summer birthday or family get together coming up, consider LWCA as your venue. Parties are usually based at the picnic tables on the upper level, you bring your own decorations, food, and beverages. A refrigerator and freezer are available for your use. More info on our website, www.lakeridgewest.org under Forms and Publications, click on 2023 Party Policy and Procedures and Party Agreement.
