Safety and service to our Lakeridge West residents are the primary responsibilities of our manager, head lifeguard, and staff. A few are residents and have worked here before, all are experienced.

Their safety responsibilities include monitoring swimmers, preventing accidents, enforcing our rules, maintaining water quality and cleanliness in both pools, and vacuuming the kiddie pool. Their service responsibilities include greeting guests, keeping the deck, tables, chairs, and restrooms clean, and removing trash. On a recent afternoon, the team washed our umbrellas (pic at left)!!! Our lifeguards focus on making your family's experience the best it can be. Say hello on your next visit.

Pool Hours Expand in July

Starting today, July 1, the pool is open from 1 to 7 pm Monday through Thursday; 1 to 9 pm on Fridays; and 11 am to 7 pm on Saturdays and Sundays. There is no "official" event on the Fourth of July but residents and guests are welcome to celebrate Independence Day, use the grills, swim, and play ping pong, cornhole, and basketball.

Arts and crafts will kick off on Saturday, July 6, at 3:30 pm with patriotic windsocks. The full schedule is posted on the onsite bulletin board and our website. Watch for upcoming announcements on dive-in movies and ice cream, Sundaes on Sundays. Inclement weather announcements are communicated on our Facebook page and through email.

Thank you to Brian Banzaca for Multiple Improvements!

If you are enjoying the background music on the lounges at the deep end, thank our good neighbor Brian Banzaca. With speakers donated by Tom Honig, Brian wired and mounted the speakers. And that's not all!

Brian installed an exhaust fan in the pump room that reduces the buildup of humidity and chlorine fumes, thereby creating a safer environment for our employees. He also engineered a mount that safely holds the lifeguard umbrellas in place, and installed a spring-activated closer on the gate leading up to the kiddie pool.

Brian is someone who readily volunteers and always with a smile, often on behind-the-scene tasks that we might not see but improve our LWCA experience. A HUGE THANK YOU FROM ALL OF US!

MANY THANKS TO

THE PRZEPIORA FAMILY

We can always count on Katya, Victor, Jacob, Maya and Hannah to volunteer. The family's most recent effort was to clean our playground, removing twigs, waste, rocks, and "sweetgum tree balls."
