2025 Summer Season Ends with Banner Festivities

LWCA residents, members and friends celebrated the Labor Day weekend with a Friday night party under the stars, a Saturday family barbecue, and a scavenger hunt for little pirates who found lots of gold and jewels in the treasure chest.

Following are some photos but first thank Trustees Cynthia Montagnino and Amanda Wong for their non-stop effort and enthusiasm in organizing our busy summer calendar.

Lifeguards Still on Duty this Weekend

The pool is closed but LWCA lifeguards will be working on Saturday, September 6, to pack up and store tables, umbrellas, lounges; organize and inventory chemicals, and final cleaning of restrooms. Winterizing the pool will take place the following weekend. Thank you to Manager Alyah Diab, Mike O'Keefe, Aaron Peralta, Jen and Kaitlyn Mazza, Jack Goldman, and Volunteer CPO Michael Kurtas for a wonderful season, sparkling pool, and great service.

What Worked, What Didn't?

While it's still fresh in your mind, send us your thoughts about this season since the Board will debrief before we begin planning and budgeting for 2026. Pool hours, activity schedule, staffing, maintenance, etc. are all areas we try to optimize for residents and guests. Suggestions to pool@lakeridgewest.org.
