WORDS OF ENCOURAGEMENT

BY JACK DUVALL, P.E.R., CHAPLAIN

September invites us into a season of change—cooler mornings, quieter evenings, and a gentle reminder that growth often comes through transition. As summer fades, we find ourselves reflecting on what we've accomplished and what still calls for our attention.

Within our Lodge, we see the strength of Elksdom in the way members support one another, step forward to serve, and offer kindness without hesitation. Let us keep close in thought those who are facing illness, loss, or personal challenges. A simple call, a prayer, or a moment of fellowship can bring comfort that carries someone through a difficult day.

This month, our Lodge prepares for Benevolent Night, one of our most heartfelt charity traditions. Through your generosity, this fundraiser strengthens the many good works that define Elksdom: supporting veterans, aiding families in crisis, helping children in our community, and ensuring that those facing hardship never face it alone. Every donation, every act of service, and every moment of fellowship during Benevolent Night becomes a blessing that reaches far beyond our walls.

As we move into September, may we embrace the values of charity, justice, brotherly love, and fidelity with renewed purpose. May this month bring clarity to our minds, peace to our hearts, and encouragement to continue the good work we do together.

Jack Duvall, P.E.R.,.....Chaplain
