

Heavenly Father, in the name of Jesus Christ, I come boldly before Your throne of grace—covered in the blood, seated with Christ, and standing in the authority You have given me.

I repent for every way I have resisted You—knowingly and unknowingly.

I repent for resisting Your will, delaying obedience, shrinking back in fear, and choosing comfort over calling.

I repent for resisting the stretching, the pruning, and the refining that You ordained for my growth.

I also repent for resisting others You sent into my life—those who carried truth, correction, wisdom, or instruction. Where pride, offense, fear, or woundedness caused me to resist, I lay it down now.

And Father, I choose to forgive—right now—anyone who has resisted me, opposed me, misunderstood me, or stood in the way of what You called me to do.

I release them. I bless them. I cancel every debt.

I will not partner with bitterness, offense, or resentment.

Now, in the authority of Jesus Christ, I take dominion over every spirit of resistance that has operated in my life.

You spirit of resistance—against God, against obedience, against momentum, against completion—I see you, and I confront you.

I break every agreement I have made with you. I renounce you completely.

I strip you of every legal right.

In the name of Jesus: Come out of me now.

Go from my mind. Go from my will. Go from my emotions. Go from my body.

I command every root of resistance—fear, procrastination, confusion, double-mindedness, control, pride, and trauma—to be uprooted now, in Jesus' name.

You will not stay. You will not hide. You will not return. The blood of Jesus is against you.

Father, I receive Your cleansing now. Wash me, renew me, restore me.

Holy Spirit, fill me afresh—every place that resistance once occupied, I invite You in.

Fill me with:

- Obedience
- Willingness
- Discipline
- Clarity
- Boldness
- Holy motivation

Ignite my spirit with fresh fire.

I declare:

I will obey God quickly. I will not resist His voice. I will not delay my assignment.

I will complete what God has given me to do.

I will be focused. I will be diligent.

I will be moved by the Spirit and not hindered by the flesh.

Every place of stagnation breaks now.

Every cycle of delay ends now.

I come into divine alignment—spirit, soul, and body.

Father, I surrender everything fully into Your hands—my will, my timeline, my calling, my outcomes.

Not my will, but Yours be done.

I seal this prayer, this deliverance, and this freedom in the blood of Jesus.

No backlash. No re-entry. No retaliation.

In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.
