

🔥 WARFARE PRAYER OVER YOUR CHILDREN 🔥

(Speak this daily and watch heaven move on their behalf)

Father God, in the mighty name of Jesus,

I come boldly before Your throne as a parent and warrior. I stand in the gap for my children—declaring that they are Yours, sealed by Your Spirit, and covered by the blood of the Lamb!

I decree that no weapon formed against them shall prosper. I bind every attack of the enemy—every spirit of rebellion, confusion, addiction, perversion, fear, anxiety, and torment—and I command it to go NOW in Jesus' name! You will NOT have my children!

I break every generational curse—spoken or unspoken, known or unknown. I cancel every assignment of the enemy that tries to grip their destiny. Every door the enemy has tried to sneak through, I slam shut by the authority of Christ.

I plead the precious blood of Jesus over their minds, bodies, spirits, and emotions. I plead the blood over their schools, their friendships, their relationships, and their decisions.

I loose ministering angels to surround them day and night. Let warring angels stand at their front and back, their right and left. Let the light of Christ shine so brightly in them that darkness trembles at the sound of their name.

I declare that they will walk in purity, they will walk in wisdom, and they will walk in the fear of the Lord. They will not be conformed to this world, but transformed by the renewing of their minds. They will hear the voice of the Good Shepherd and the voice of a stranger they will not follow.

I prophesy over my children:

- You are taught of the Lord and great is your peace (Isaiah 54:13).
- You are arrows in the hand of the Mighty Warrior, and you will hit your divine target.
- You are bold as a lion, full of truth and fire.
- You are a voice in your generation.
- You are marked for greatness and covered in glory.
- You will fulfill your kingdom assignment without delay or detour.

Every label, lie, and limitation that has been placed on you is removed now by the Spirit of the Living God.

I call forth your purpose. I call forth your calling. I call forth your courage.

Lord, give them encounters with You. Let dreams, visions, and prophetic wisdom fill them even in their youth. Raise them up to be warriors—not worriers, not wanderers—but anchored sons and daughters of the Most High.

I bless them with favor, strength, discernment, and divine protection.

They will not fall. They will rise. They will not be lost. They are FOUND.

In the mighty name of Jesus, I seal this prayer and declaration by the blood and power of the Holy Ghost.

Amen and Amen!
