

What are Monitoring Spirits?

Monitoring spirits are demonic agents sent by the enemy to track your movements, gather intel on your destiny, and disrupt God's plans for your life. They often operate through people close to you, objects, or even dreams—subtle but strategic. These spirits are part of the enemy's surveillance system, designed to delay breakthrough, stir confusion, and open doors to spiritual attack. But through discernment, prophetic intercession, and targeted warfare prayers, you can shut down their assignment and scatter every plan formed against you. Stay alert—your destiny is too important to leave unguarded.
