

PROPHETIC PRAYER TO WALK IN DAUGHTERHOOD (priesthood), NOT VICTIMHOOD

Father, in the name of Jesus, I thank You that I can stand on the truth that I am not abandoned, rejected, or forgotten—I am Your daughter (or son), chosen, beloved, and marked by Heaven.

Abba, I renounce every identity that does not align with Your truth.

I reject the label of victim. I will not wear the garments of shame, abuse, betrayal, or defeat and I come out of agreement with these lies.

I cast off every soul tie to trauma, every agreement with pain, every lie that says I am less than, unworthy, or broken beyond repair.

I decree: I am not what happened to me—I am who You say I am!

Even when I feel overwhelmed, I will not bow to confusion, fear, or pressure.

In the midst of chaos, I choose stillness in Your presence. I lean into Your Spirit, who reminds me of who I am and whose I am.

I rebuke every voice that rises against Your truth.

I silence the voice of the accuser, the liar who seeks to wear me down with condemnation, self-pity, and fear.

Satan, the blood of Jesus is against you! You have no legal right to speak into my destiny.

I bind the spirit of victimhood and self-pity and cast it into the abyss. You will no longer influence my thoughts or emotions.

Restore the joy of my salvation and renew a right spirit within me.

I receive the mantle of daughterhood/priesthood. I pick up my crown. I walk in the authority and inheritance of a child of the King.

I decree:

- I am loved and never alone.
- I am strong and not forsaken.
- I am healed, whole, and rising.
- I am seated in heavenly places and I will walk in dominion.

Father, You said in Your Word, “I will be a Father to you, and you shall be My daughters,” says the Lord Almighty (2 Corinthians 6:18).

So I declare: I am Yours. You are mine. And nothing can separate me from Your love.

I release every burden, every lie, every limitation—
and I step into freedom, into identity, into daughterhood/ priesthood.

In Jesus' mighty name,
Amen and Amen.
