

DECLARATION: THE PRODIGALS ARE RETURNING & DRY BONES ARE RISING

We declare by the authority of the Name above every name—Jesus Christ—that this is the hour of divine return and supernatural resurrection. The wind of the Holy Spirit is moving swiftly across the land, stirring hearts, reviving destinies, and restoring what was thought to be lost.

DECLARATION OVER PRODIGALS:

We declare: The prodigals are coming home!

They will awaken from deception. They will return to the Father's house. Their true identity as sons and daughters will be restored. The chains of rebellion, shame, and confusion are breaking now in Jesus' Name!

Prayer Points:

- 1. Father, arrest the hearts of every prodigal with dreams, visions, and divine encounters.
- 2. We break the power of the enemy's lies that have kept them bound in false identities.
- 3. We declare divine appointments and reconnections that lead them back to truth.
- 4. Father, prepare our hearts to receive them with grace, love, and restoration.

DECLARATION OVER DRY BONES:

We declare: Dry bones, come to life!

Every dormant gift, silenced voice, buried calling, and forgotten vision—RISE by the breath of God! What looked dead is being resurrected with power and purpose.

Prayer Points:

1. Holy Spirit, breathe afresh on the dry places—we speak life, hope, and fire into every weary soul.
2. We call forth prophetic voices and warriors who've been in hiding—let them rise with boldness!
3. We declare a revival of dreams and destinies that were once shelved out of disappointment or fear.
4. Lord, ignite old wells and stir up new rivers of anointing, revelation, and divine momentum.

We declare: Your prayers have power and your labor is not in vain!

Heaven has heard, and now earth will see. The suddenlies of God are in motion.

Prayer Points:

1. Father, strengthen the intercessors and watchmen—renew their endurance and vision.
2. Release fresh strategies from heaven for this hour of revival and return.
3. Let a spirit of travail and breakthrough rest upon those who carry the burden of nations and families.

We declare:

The lost are being found.

The dead are coming alive.

The army is rising.

The fire is falling.

And the time is NOW.

In Jesus' mighty Name—Amen!
