

🔥 Prophetic Declaration Over Barrenness

"You shall not be called desolate..." (Isaiah 62:4)

I decree and declare that every spirit of barrenness—whether in the womb, in your business, in your ministry, or in your purpose—is breaking now in Jesus' name!

The dry places are receiving rain. The closed doors are opening. The cycles of delay and disappointment are being shattered by the fire of God.

You are stepping into a season of divine fruitfulness.

Where there has been emptiness, there will be overflow.

Where there has been weeping, there will be sudden joy.

Where there has been "not yet," the Lord is declaring "NOW!"

I prophesy:

- Your womb shall bear life.
- Your dreams shall resurrect.
- Your destiny shall advance.
- Your spirit shall not faint.
- Your harvest shall manifest!

God is activating you for breakthrough—every seed of promise planted in tears is coming forth in power. Barrenness is not your identity. Fruitfulness is your portion.
