

Bible Study

Reflections from Eden

The Second Creation Story

This discussion-based Bible Study series delves into the second creation story in Genesis, exploring its rich theological and spiritual insights across five sessions. The series begins by examining the existence of two distinct creation narratives, setting the stage for deeper exploration. Subsequent lessons will cover the intimacy of God's creation, the importance of human relationships, our role as stewards of creation, and the pivotal themes of moral choice and responsibility as illustrated by the Tree of Knowledge. Each session aims to connect these timeless biblical truths to contemporary life, fostering a deeper understanding and practical application.

Date	Topic	Notes:
	Introduction & Orientation
	Are There 2 Creation Stories?
	The Intimacy of Creation
	Building Godly Relationships
	Stewardship and Responsibility
	Free Will

Embark on a transformative journey through Genesis chapters 2 and 3 as we delve into Genesis's second creation story. This series not only explores the unique narrative of how humanity and nature came to be but also illuminates the intimate relationship between the Creator and His creation. Each session is designed to uncover the rich spiritual lessons embedded within this ancient text, such as the significance of human relationships, our stewardship of the earth, and the profound choices that define our moral compass.

Join us as we explore how these timeless truths can be applied to our daily lives, enhancing our understanding of our role in the world and our connection to the divine. This study is an invitation to deepen your faith, broaden your perspective on creation, and discover the special place humanity holds in the grand scheme of God's universe. Whether you're seeking to enrich your spiritual knowledge or find deeper meaning in the biblical text, this series promises to offer valuable insights and a welcoming community eager to explore together. Don't miss this opportunity to see the Genesis creation story in a new light and to share in the collective wisdom and fellowship of our church family.