Happy Pi Day - as in the math term π . We celebrated by eating mini apple pies on 3.14 (March 14) at 1:59:26 pm, since the first 8 digits of pi are 3.1415926. If only algebra was as easy as eating apple pie...

Reading, writing, and rock-n-roll! Our kids started online school in Feb and have now settled into a good routine. We mix work with fun and even play outside a little each day.

“What do we have to fear? Not man. Not even a virus. When we respect and fear the Lord, we don’t need to be afraid of anything else.” Keith took his turn speaking online for our Sunday morning group. To keep up with our story, read our weekly updates at bamboogrove.info password: 5ricebowls!

Prayer Points

- ◆ Virus: Thank the Lord that after two months of COVID-19 restrictions, life is returning to normal here with shops reopening. We’ve heard rumors that schools might reopen in mid-April. Father, give the kids discipline as they continue home schooling.
- ◆ Hands of Hope: We have paused production like other local businesses, but we’re still working behind the scenes to rebrand for the US market. J, give Julie wisdom as she leads this team of women.
- ◆ Visas: We were concerned the coronavirus restrictions might make it hard to renew our visas, but we got them right on time! Thank you, Father, for giving us permission to stay another year.
- ◆ Teacher’s Class: Two of Keith’s classes were postponed recently. Spirit, guide the team on when to restart. Help Keith’s students take advantage of extra free time to teach courses online.
- ◆ Graduate School: Keith used the extra time he’s had lately to finish his dissertation. J, help Keith successfully defend his paper on Thursday, April 2, so he can graduate in June.
