Highway:

Terry: None

Wayne: Graded all roads, checked for fallen trees, went to the dump, replaced stop sign.

Fire District: Meeting went into closed session so there is nothing to report

Old Business: Treasure Holmes asked if we could set up a date to audit the books from 2019. That date will be set for mid-October sometime

New Business: Supervisor Horacek stated there was a big tree down across 6th Ave, between him and

Clerk Horacek they moved the tree off to the side of the road. Three Beavers have been caught by the trapper. Someone has been doing donuts in different parts of the township. On 5th Ave and Bighorn Ave they knocked over the stop sign and the street sign, Supervisor horacek fixed those.

It was asked when 6th Ave was going to have the wedging done on it. Supervisor gold stated as soon as Scotts construction comes back in the area, they plan to do it.

Clerk Horacek stated that Howard Travis who owns the land along 6th Ave is now unhappy because all the water was taken away. He is worried there will be a heavy rain and it might wash out his fence.

REGULAR COLBURN TOWN MEETING; Monday August 17, 2020

Supervisor Horacek asked if the town would consider Finding someone to take Terry's place if he cannot work for any reason. Currently, he is still off from his injury. It was agreed That the town needs a backup person. Supervisor Horacek stated that he will ask Harry Strom if he would be willing to help when needed.
