REGULAR COLBURN TOWN MEETING

February 8, 2021

New Business: Jim Wehinger from Rural Mutual Insurance: Chairman Sigourney asked if the insurance company would be able to send the final payment for the replacement of the town shop. Mr. Wehinger stated if we had a bill from the contractor stating work was complete, they would send the last payment. Clerk Horacek stated she would forward that to him. talked about the fire department law suit. He stated that there is not anything going on at this point. Chairman Sigourney also asked if the insurance company would be covering the cost of the attorney. Mr. Wehinger will be looking into it. He feels that the fire district's insurance should be covering the cost.

Treasurer Holmes stated that there were a few landowners that overpaid on last year's taxes. As of today, they still have not cashed the checks that were sent to them. It was agreed to reissue new checks to them.

Announcements: Next monthly meeting: March 8, 2021
