REGULAR COLBURN TOWN MEETING

Monday, January 9, 2023

Following the 2023 Caucus

Old Business, Cont.: Chairman Sigourney stated he had talked with Roger Prince about possibly donating the land that is west of the Colburn-Leola Cemetery to the cemetery association. At this time Roger Prince hasn't decided what he would like to do with that section of land. Michele Holmes stated that the cemetery is running out of land.

New Business: None

Public Comment: Mary Pokomy lives on the private road off Badger Dr. west of 6th Ave. She stated that someone had ran off the road over the weekend. It was due to all the ice on the road at Badger Dr. & 6th Ave. The fire department had also been out, and they told them the road was really bad. The towns plow driver Mike stated that he had been out and did sand the roads. It was also stated that the town will not send out the plow until there is more than 2 inches of snow.

Juliana Quella lives in the township. She also works for the Adams-Friendship School bus company. The driver reported that 6th Ave to Beaver Ave into Big Flats needed more sand put down.

Mary Pokomy's husband asked if a tree comes down on the road can he cut it up and take it? Chairman Sigourney told him he could. Supervisor Gold stated that it would be better if they called the sheriff department. They would then get a hold of the town to take care of it.

Announcements: Next monthly meeting: February 13, 2023 @7:00 PM

Motion to adjourn by Supervisor Horacek, 2nd by Supervisor Gold

Terri L. Horacek
