Highway:

Terry: Plowed all town roads several times. Took truck in for recall repairs. Power washed the truck.

Wayne: Plowed town hall. Winged back a couple of roads

Fire District: They had several close meetings. There was also a public meeting; 16 firefighters are doing training the Department has to pay for the books. Treasure Holmes says she was doing research on MSTC's website she stated that you can search to see what kind of training they are certified for. Once the firefighters have finished the training on being able to drive the fire trucks, they will still have to wait for a Chief to show up in order to do anything on the scene of a fire. The fire district president, Steve Meyer has stepped down from his position.

Supervisor Horacek made a motion to have the Coloma Fire Chief run the Hancock Fire Department. 2nd by Supervisor Gold. If it is not done this way the town will be looking for a new fire department.

Motion Carried
