REGULAR COLBURN TOWN MEETING

March 8, 2021

New Business: Dustin Grant from the Adams County Planning and Zoning talked farm preservation mapping. Which is about the mapping system for zoning of properties he stated there will be a public hearing on April 7th. There will be some changes with those that have campers on their property more than 7 days of a month. Landowners will be expected to have the proper waste holding tanks, if there is no house on the land. He plans on going out to properties in researching those with campers. They will be sending a letter out to those landowners.

Sale of the old town hall: a notice will be put in the paper for three weeks with the deadline by April 20th postings will also be put on the town boards. It will state that the building must be removed by July 1, 2021 expense include permits.

New savings account: it was decided to put the money that the town received from Lee Holmes into a money market account. Clerk Horacek will check with the Town of Richfield's clerk on where they have invested money with money they had inherited.

Announcements: Next monthly meeting: April 20, 2021 following the Annual Meeting at 7:00 PM.
