

Partner Yellow Pages Privacy Policy

Last Updated: June 2026

1. Introduction

Partner Yellow Pages is a Discord utility bot that helps communities manage partner listings, representative assignments, rumble schedules, directories, and related organizational tools.

2. Information We Collect

Discord Server IDs, Server Names, Channel IDs, Role IDs, User IDs used for representative assignments, configuration settings, listings, schedules, and audit information.

The Bot does not collect passwords, payment information, private messages, or account credentials.

3. Information Entered By Users

Administrators may save partner server names, invite links, channel links, representative assignments, schedules, and notes needed for bot functionality.

4. How Information Is Used

Information is used solely for directory management, scheduling, role assignment, invite validation, reporting, and backup functionality.

5. Role Assignment Data

The Bot may assign or remove Partner Rep and Rumble Rep roles based on listing information.

6. Invite Validation

The Bot may periodically verify saved Discord invite links and notify administrators when an invite becomes invalid.

7. Data Storage

Data is retained only as necessary to provide bot functionality.

8. Backups

Administrators may export listings, schedules, and configuration information through built-in backup tools.

9. Audit Logging

Optional audit logs may record listing changes, schedule updates, imports, exports, and configuration changes.

10. Data Sharing

Partner Yellow Pages does not sell, rent, or share data with advertisers or marketing organizations.

11. Data Removal

Administrators may remove listings, schedules, and server data at any time.

12. Security

Reasonable security measures are used to protect stored information.

13. Children's Privacy

The Bot is intended for users who meet Discord's age requirements.

14. Third-Party Services

The Bot relies on Discord and hosting infrastructure that may have separate privacy policies.

15. Changes to This Policy

This policy may be updated periodically. Continued use constitutes acceptance of updates.
