

IN HOT PURSUIT: ROMANCING EACH OTHER

DAILY MOMENTS WORKSHEET

It is not in the big events—the great challenges—that we prove God is real and alive in us, but in the daily, mundane, recurring moments when we connect instead of disconnecting, we forgive instead of resenting, we are kind instead of being mean, we give grace instead of judgment. Those are the moments that add up to the grand total of our experience with God and with one another (Colossians 3:12-18).
