

Listing Syndication is becoming one of the fastest growing listing advertising mediums on the Internet today. Giving your listing maximum exposure just makes sense. When you list with Russell Real Estate Services your property will be given “Maximum Exposure” in print and online via two of the largest syndication networks in the real estate industry, with new partners being added frequently. Russell even authorizes your property to appear on other broker websites so all prospective buyers are made aware it is available. Your listing can also be found indirectly on hundreds of other publication websites due to our many other marketing venues and to our unmatched print media advertising. Don't let anybody fool you...Today you still need both forms of advertising and marketing to get “Maximum Exposure”.

Your property may also appear in classified sections of hundreds of other publication websites of Gannett Co. Inc., Tribune Co., The McClatchy Co., Community Newspaper Holdings, Inc., MediaNews Group, The E.W. Scripps Company Publications like: The New York Times, Washington Post, Kiplinger, US News and World Report, Chicago Tribune, CNN Money, New York Post, Daily Tribune, The Daily News Journal, The Cincinnati Enquirer, The Miami Herald, Anchorage Daily News, Los Angeles Times, Bal more Sun, Naples News, CNN Money, Washington Times Herald, Princeton Times and many more!

Some listing may not appear on all above websites, due to property type, location and/or rules of the website being sent the property information. Information is deemed reliable, but not warranted or guaranteed.