Three full scholarships to obtain this certificate are available to Masters in Social Work or Mental Health Counseling students (graduating in May 2024) and licensed clinicians through fundraising efforts of Love From Lydia, a 501(c)(3) organization. The mission of Love From Lydia is to provide support to grieving families following the loss of a child, including guidance on how to access resources.

Eligibility

- Masters students graduating in May 2024 and LSW/LCSW/LAC/LPC level clinicians who practice in New Jersey.
- Interest in working with grieving families, particularly with parents who have experienced the death of a child
- Special consideration will be given to those clinicians working in community mental health agencies, in-network with government and commercial insurances, and/or offer low-cost or pro bono sessions.
- Must commit to attending all of the following virtual training sessions:
  - 5/15/2024 10:00 AM - 1:30 PM
  - 6/5/2024 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM
  - 6/26/2024 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM
  - 7/31/2024 10:00 AM - 1:00 PM
  - 8/21/2024 10:00 AM - 12:30 PM

Expectations if Offered the Scholarship

- We ask that you share your feedback and, if interested, assist in curriculum building for future trainings organized by Love From Lydia.
- You consent to be included on a referral list of providers given to families looking for therapeutic services.

Applications must be submitted by March 15, 2024 and will be reviewed by the Love From Lydia Executive Board. Recipients of the scholarships will be notified no later than April 5, 2024.
