

I will never leave God's side.

He has brought me from the pits of hell to a wide place, where He has sheltered me under His protection and guidance. He is guiding me in His paths of Peace.

A picture is worth a thousand words, as the saying goes.

God has taught me how to overcome witchcraft, addiction, anger, depression, unfaithfulness, PTSD, and many other chains that had bound me in the hell that I lived in.

He did not save me and place me where I am for me to stand in judgment of others. He saved me so that I can draw upon the instructions and guidance that He has taken the time to instill and establish within my heart. To help other men to not find themselves entrapped by a million little chains.

My words and doctrine are not for the faint of heart, nor for the undecided. Loyalty and faithfulness are not negotiable. He saved me and did not have an obligation to do so.

In 1994, I had joined the US Army, while running I was unable to breathe. I said, "God, if You heal my lungs, I will live for You and tell others.", immediately my lungs were healed and I did not have any more problems breathing. For 20 years, God blessed and protected every area of my life. However, I was not a man who kept his word and covenant with God. I lost everything, 20 years after our agreement. This is why I say that He had no obligation to give me a second opportunity.

I refuse to give opportunity to disrespect Him for this second opportunity. I am fierce to shut down persons who falsely represent Him in a manner contrary to His nature and my experience with Him. He is my Father and my closest friend.

We are given two commands:

1. Love and be faithful/loyal to God.
2. Love others as He has loved us.

Husbands are given a third commandment:

1. Husbands, love your own wife as Christ loved the Church, even laying His life down for her.

These are not suggestions to be taken lightly, but rather to be diligently adhered to. Any relationship is unable to continue if the lines of faithful and unfaithful are blurred. Not in a business, marriage, nor in a Holy relationship.

ECCLESIASTES 5:4-5

WHEN YOU MAKE A VOW TO GOD, DO NOT DELAY TO PAY IT;

FOR HE HAS NO PLEASURE IN FOOLS.

PAY WHAT YOU HAVE VOWED—

BETTER NOT TO VOW THAN TO VOW AND NOT PAY.

I paid dearly for not fulfilling my obligation, my promise to Him.

I will depart this planet before I fail to make every effort to maintain and adhere to my three vows with and before Him.

1. Oath of enlistment.
2. Tell others my testimony.
3. My marriage covenant.

Thank you for your time.
