

ANTI-HARASSMENT (HOMEOWNER-TO-HOMEOWNER)

FGHA promotes reasonable conduct and communications between homeowners, and discourages offensive and unreasonable behavior, including without limitation discriminatory harassment and/or abuse based upon race, color, creed, religion, sex, sexual orientation, familial status, national origin, citizenship, or the presence of any sensory, mental, or physical disability, or any other grounds protected by the Washington laws against discrimination, the federal Fair Housing Act (FHA), and the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), and any other applicable regulations and executive orders. (Refer to Rules & Regulation 3.170.0 – Anti-Harassment (Homeowner-to-Homeowner for definitions and further clarification.)
