MEET YOUR EXPERT IN REAL ESTATE

Wall

Hello! My name is Andrew English. Born and raised in Monmouth County, I am proud to call this community "my home". Having personally helped complete a full reconstruction of my own home, I understand both the rewards and challenges of homeownership from the inside out, to make a dream home a reality.

I've always been passionate about the community- from my previous work with youth sports programs to volunteering. My deep roots and firsthand knowledge of Monmouth County's towns, schools, and neighborhoods allow me to help my client find the perfect place to call home.

Whether you're buying your first home, selling your current property, or exploring investment opportunities, I'm committed to guiding you through every step of the process with honesty, care, and local expertise.
