

Volunteer Position: Beekeeping Nonprofit Volunteer

Time Commitment: Flexible, with a minimum of 10 per week

About Us: Join our passionate team at Bee-Lieve Education Foundation, where we work to protect and promote the health of bees while supporting our community. We focus on education, conservation, and providing opportunities for veterans through our Master Beekeeping Program.

Role Overview: We are seeking enthusiastic and dedicated volunteers to support our mission. As a volunteer, you will engage in a variety of activities that help us raise awareness, secure funding, and recruit participants for our programs.

Key Responsibilities:

- Fundraising & Cold Calling: Reach out to potential sponsors and donors to secure funding for our initiatives. Your efforts will help us continue our vital work in bee conservation and education.
- Grant Research: Identify and research grant opportunities that align with our mission. Assist in the preparation of grant applications to ensure we have the resources needed to grow our programs.
- Community Outreach: Distribute fliers and informational materials at local events, farmers' markets, and other venues to raise awareness about our nonprofit and its impact.
- Honey Stand Operations: Help operate our honey stand at farmers' markets and similar events. Engage with customers, share information about our products, and promote the benefits of beekeeping.
- Veteran Recruitment: Play a key role in recruiting veterans for our Master Beekeeping Program. You'll connect with veterans, share the benefits of the program, and help them get started on their beekeeping journey.

Qualifications:

- Passion for environmental conservation and community service
- Strong communication skills, especially in engaging with the public
- Comfortable making phone calls and speaking with potential sponsors
- Ability to work independently and as part of a team
- Experience or interest in beekeeping is a plus, but not required
- Commitment to supporting veterans in our community

Benefits:

- Gain hands-on experience in nonprofit operations and fundraising
- Contribute to a meaningful cause that benefits the environment and veterans
- Learn about beekeeping and honey production
- Flexible volunteer hours that fit your schedule
- Network with like-minded individuals passionate about bees and sustainability

How to Apply: If you're interested in this volunteer opportunity, please send your resume and a brief cover letter explaining why you'd like to join our team to info@bee-hivehoney.com.
