About The KLH Group

"I have had the privilege of knowing Kim Horne more than 12 years. I have known her both in a secular profession and in the ministerial realm. And I can truly say that she has been a genuine person and an invaluable asset. She's a natural leader, knows where she's headed in life and how to get there. Kim is a self starter and an over achiever and finishes what she starts in a spirit of excellence. I can say with certainty that this endeavor she is embarking on will be a tremendous success. It would be an awesome opportunity to be a part of her new venture. Join the team."

Bishop Samuel Duncan, Jr.

"Missionary Kimberly Horne demonstrates strength, tenacity, integrity and intelligence in everything that she does. Her faith in God allows her to stand strong in the midst of adversity and she uses wisdom helping others understand and cultivate their strengths."

Dr. Beverly Cole-Bennett, EdD, Mt Zion COGIC of Muskegon, MI, First Lady

"I have had the honor to work with Kimberly in ministry and found her to be a young lady who articulate and engage herself in teaching life skills on a daily base on all levels of education. She's one who always share herself with others and never regret to go the extra mile to allow herself to think outside the box. As a professional young lady she will be one who knows how to develop."

Lady Dorothy Duncan.

"Chairlady Kimberly Horne is gifted in the arena of strategic planning and cultivating the next generation. As a recipient of her teachings and workshops, she made it her mission to empower my professional, communication and organizational skills. In addition to scriptural revelation, she provided me with tools to utilize the word of God and to become a beacon of light to the professional world."
