Please sign this document , initial all pages and return all pages as an acknowledgment that you have read, received and agree with our policies and procedures.

I, _____ have read, understand and abide by the policies and procedures of the Nomadic Connections in Reflection and hold the Nomadic Connections in Reflection and Soler Enterprises USA, Inc harmless of any liability for not following the rules and procedures outlined in this form and any other additions to this form as mentioned in emails, texts, messages, social media, facebook group posts and or phone calls.

I understand that I have the choice to come and go and am responsible for my own safety and that of my rig. I hold no one responsible for my own choices and actions.

I understand that Nomadic Connections in Reflection is a lifetime membership hoping to connect nomadic women into making lifelong friendships. We are place of love, and acceptance and hope that you will connect with others in a respectful manner.

Being a Christian biblical based organization we are dependent upon God's grace so that we do not have room to look down on others. We purpose to nurture each others' spiritual growth by encouraging one another. We desire to align our actions, words, attitudes, and affections with the nature of God. Disunity results from our own selfish motives and actions. We purpose to preserve this unity by refraining from gossip, a critical spirit, and divisive behavior.

It is every members responsibility to promote the mission, protect the reputation, and ensure the success of this nomadic community. We are neither owned nor are we a franchise of any. Insofar as is practical in fulfilling our mission and as long as those bodies we agree to work with hold to Biblical truth, we will work with them cooperatively in helping women of domestic violence and or homelessness. This mission in helping others is voluntary.

All questionnaires must be returned prior to APP invite.

All initial meetups should be conducted at a public location during daytime hours.

Any unusual activities observed by any members should be provided in writing to administration.

No dating or relationships allowed within its members.

Women's Membership is strictly for females only.

We are based on Christian principles and morals and will not accept any teachings that do not align with basic Christian biblical principles.

We accept all non Christian persons in hopes that you will accept Jesus Christ into your heart once you experience the love our members share with you.

If you have medical needs we recommend you invest in an annual membership such as Travel Assist that can help you get back to home base in the event you need transportation back home to your family while traveling.

We ask that you be respectful of everyone and give notice when leaving a Caravan or disconnecting from a travel partner. Give at least 24 hrs and keep a copy via text for your own records.

You should be considerate when making travel plan changes with your travel partners or groups within a Caravan.

You are responsible for your own rig repairs and problems. Although we may be able to offer you some support in finding solutions to your problem, ultimately the costs are your responsibility.

There is no gossiping allowed. Be respectful of others and ask before making assumptions of others and situations.

You are to not lead others to dangerous situations during storms or bad weather. If you do not like the plans made to whether a storm, you may leave on your own but please let the group or leading person know your plans. It is rude to just think about yourself and take off suddenly out of fear.

Please let us know if you will be in one place with no activity for over 72 hours if your APP permissions are on, otherwise we may think there has been a security issue with you.

Although we will try our best to notify emergency personal if we suspect a problem, please understand that if your location permissions are off or there is no cell coverage we may not be able to pinpoint your current location.

If you suspect a dangerous situation may arise where you are parked it is your responsibility to make us aware so we can be alert to your location and activity.

When contacting another nomad please be respectful of their time for any meetup. Let the other person know if you change plans, are running late or need to cancel in advance of the meeting.

When posting to the Facebook group be respectful of those that wish not to be photographed or video taped.

If you wish not to be video taped or photographed please let the camera person know in advance by written communication such as email or text. It is your responsibility to share this request with the others in your group.

As women, we understand that we do not always agree with everything others say or do, but we should make it a point to be respectful enough to agree, to disagree politely.

There is no political postings on the Facebook group or on the APP.

No controversial or propaganda clothing is allowed to be worn in support of Pride, BLM, Che, political, or anything to the effect that it is insulting to Christians and does not support our Christian beliefs based on biblical doctrine.

We are here to inspire others and not diminish their abilities, your positivity through all things is what shines in times of darkness.

The donation of firewood, food or any other supply for a Caravan is subject to the agreements made within that particular Caravan. Please bring up all matters to that particular groups leader.

All mentor calls are your responsibility to schedule monthly. You can do that by using the Website to schedule that call.

It is your responsibility to be available for your monthly mentoring phone call. If you do not answer the phone nor give us advance notice of changes to the appointment we may not be able to give you a makeup call until the next month.

You can conduct bible studies with other women as long as the main focus of your studies is through the use of the Holy Bible .

When parking with a Caravan try to park where you can all spot each other and no one is blocked by a larger rig. This will be your safest way to be visible to others.

Please keep any fire arms in your RV unless you are attending a target practice range.

If a situation arises outside your rig that appears to be a safety concern, notify all parties you are with and stay inside until the situation clears . Do not go outside to expose yourself so that someone feels a need to come out and defend you. Do not put others in harms way.

You can text us any support request but please be patient with us to reply if it is not an immediate emergency.

If you have children please be mindful that they are your responsibility to take care of and that responsibility should not be passed on to anyone else. Same goes for owning and bringing pets along. Please clean up after your pets.

If you are bringing a child that you are not the legal guardian for we will need a liability form filled out from their legal guardian in order to allow the child to join us and participate in any events.

There will be no use of drugs of any kind that are not prescribed by a Doctor solely for medical reasons.

When planning caravans and or meeting places please opt for the lowest price or free options that you can plan in advance for.

Please be prepared to offer something for any spontaneous group cookouts.

No group meals will be allowed unless everyone in the group receives an invite with the time of the meal. please text the group the plans to confirm that everyone joining the group receives that invite.

Be prepared to see women praying, reading the bible, conducting bible study, and listening to worship music. If you do not want to participate it is your choice but please do not interfere in others who do.

If you are joining a Caravan and later budding up with another member to go your own way, please inform us with at least 24 hr notice so that we can make any adjustments for future members joining.

Please be kind to those that have less than you and offer them help or assistance .

If you meet a houseless woman while traveling and would like to offer her a quilt please inform me and send me the contact information for that lady so we can try to help her.

The purpose of the APP is to find other members to travel with. The APP is not to be used to chase someone or for stalking a member. If a member prefers some time alone please respect their wishes and do not use the APP to track them down.

The APP is strictly for paid members. Do not give the code to anyone including friends or family. This is strictly forbidden.

It is your responsibility to inform any group leader that you are joining their group otherwise you might miss a group text from that group leader.

All group texts should be replied to via that initial text.

You understand that this is not a paid Traveling Caravan and that changes to the group leader or caravan plans could change at any time and that you may need to adapt to those changes by making your own plans moving forward on your own or with others.

You understand that the APP's key function is location sharing and that texting through the APP at times is not reliable. Please make it a point to get a reply by addressing your needs through an email if you do not receive a prompt reply via the APP.

Please follow the online policy for refunds or for any disputes which are noted on the website.

It is your responsibility to have your APP location turned on during travels to be found by others in the event that you get separated.

It is forbidden to post any complaints publicly on the facebook group, the APP or via group texts. All complaints should go through the proper procedures outlined on the website and or you can send a private email with your concerns.

Communication is the key to having success with others. Please make sure to reach out to others so there are no misunderstandings and strive always for forgiveness in all things whenever appropriate for the situation.

Remember, you are here to join a community and not buddy up with certain individuals. If you have a question or concern please bring that up to administration and not to a buddy. We strive to make your time enjoyable and simple and there should never be any unanswered questions, but please bring those concerns up to administration or a caravan leader depending on the situation.
