To Whom It May Concern:

This agency is governed by the Osage Nation Business License Code. It is a policy of the Nation to promote economic development on the Reservation. To achieve this policy, the Nation will be identifying and regulating all applicable persons and entities doing business on the Reservation. Therefore, all persons who exercise in the privilege of engaging in business on the Reservation must register and obtain a business license through the Osage Nation Tax Commission.

Per Bill ONCA 07-40, the law defines engaging in business as “commencing, conducting, or continuing in business, and relates to a person who is involved in trade or commerce inclusive of service activities regardless of whether they are, or are intended to be, for profit. It shall also include the sale of real or personal property on the Osage Indian Reservation by a person generally engaged in such business whether within or outside the exterior boundaries of the Osage Indian Reservation which are under the jurisdiction of the Nation, and other such land without such boundaries as may hereafter be added thereto under any law of the United States of America, except as otherwise provided by law.”

The responsibility of obtaining the license is that of the business. The Business License Code law can be viewed in its entirety on the Osage Nation Congress website. It can be found in the “Final Bills and Resolutions” as Bill ONCA 07-40.

Please contact the Osage Nation Tax Commission at 918-287-5393 to receive an application or to find out more information on license fees, exemptions and penalties.

We look forward to receiving your completed information and the potential of establishing a business relationship between your company and the Osage Nation.
