

The World's Game

Spanish Readiness Checklist

A translation checklist for businesses serving international visitors in June–July 2026.

Preparing for increased international traffic requires more than staffing adjustments. Use this checklist to ensure your guest-facing materials are ready for Spanish-speaking visitors during high-traffic events.

Customer-Facing Materials

- Restaurant menus
- Pricing and item descriptions
- Hotel booking confirmations
- Cancellation policies
- Event schedules and instructions
- Promotional signage reviewed for clarity

Legal & Liability Protection

- Event waivers
- Safety instructions
- Emergency procedures clearly communicated
- Rental agreements
- Refund and dispute policies clearly explained

Operational Comms

- Check-in and check-out instructions
- Shuttle and transportation signage
- Automated text/email notifications
- Website landing pages
- FAQ sections reviewed for multilingual clarity

Brand Experience

- Spanish messaging reflects your brand tone
- Translations reviewed for cultural accuracy
- Staff aware of available Spanish materials
- QR codes or links provided for easy access
- Consistency across print and digital materials

If you checked fewer than 80% of these boxes...

Your business may benefit from our translation services before peak event traffic arrives.

Schedule a 15-minute consultation at www.spanishwithagringo.com/consultation.

Spanish With A Gringo[®]
Language Strategy & Translation