Hi. I'm David. I used to be your bus driver. Which bus? All of them. Trailways in Texas. SuperShuttle y Omnibus La Cubana en Miami and most importantly, Private Transportation in NYC. We had a fleet of Buffalos Four on the floor. Drove like a sports car but I digress. At the age of 72, I've got a lot of memories with which I may draw ideas for the future. ¡Claro!

Y'all know the bus driver has ears? No, I ain't gonna tell your wife.
Besides, my eyes are on the road but y'all gave me "no soap" radio!

I drove the "Prison Gap" bus to Attica from Columbus Circle and Atlantic City charters.

I told y'all thirty years ago that Trump was a thief. What do I know? I'm just the bus driver

I know I've heard more than once someone say "I'd fix that shit in a heartbeat if I was Mayor" or President or something. You spending $40 grocery money to visit your son upstate had a lot of "say'n" on the five hour drive.

While my wife was lying in a hospital bed, I was surfing the web. I stumbled into Name.com where I found a list of available domains for sale for only 99¢.
It JUMPED off the page. VOTUS.us I instantly recognized the acronym for Voters of the United States. So I make a corporation called Voters of the United States LLC. I make it free for everyone.
I accept donations.
